
SUSAN AND JOHN ULLRICH ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP

Application

Deadline: April 1st

The Susan and John Ullrich Endowed Scholarship was created to recognize Eastern Michigan University students for leadership outside of their normal course of study (e.g., athletics, clubs, student government, community volunteerism, or social initiatives). The Honors College selects recipients, but applicants need not be members of The Honors College. Typically, two awards of $1000-$1500 are distributed across a fall and winter semester.

Eligibility

To be eligible for and receive the award, students must:

- Have completed at least 60 hours at the time of application
- Maintain a GPA of 3.0

Student Information

Student Name: _____ Student EID: _____

Emich Email: _____@emich.edu Phone Number: _____

Mailing Address: _____

Major(s): _____

Minor(s): _____

Leadership Roles: _____

Expected Graduation Date: _____ Current GPA: _____

Honors Hours Completed: _____ Honors Hours in Progress: _____

College Hours Completed: _____

Member of the Honors College? Yes No

Intended Honors Pathway(s): University Honors Departmental Honors Highest Honors

Essay Question

On a separate piece of paper, describe your current, past, and future (intended) leadership roles on and off campus in the areas of athletics, student organizations, student government, community volunteerism, or social initiatives. Explain how you intend to use the leadership abilities you have developed at EMU in your future career.

Submit the application form and your essay as a single PDF to
The Honors College at EMUHonors@emich.edu.
Do not submit a Google document.