Articulation Agreement Discontinuation

September 2007

The articulation agreement between Washtenaw Community College and Eastern Michigan University for the Bachelor of Science in Paralegal Studies has been discontinued as of fall 2007. Students enrolling at WCC in fall 2007 or later should use the Paralegal Studies transfer guide.

Students who started the requirements for this articulated program prior to September 2007 will be allowed three years (until August 31, 2010) to transfer to EMU under the terms of the agreement. Students should contact Nancy Caine Harbour, Paralegal Studies Program Director, for help in making a plan to complete the program at EMU.
