

NASPE/NCATE MASTERS ACCREDITATION ADJUDICATOR REVIEW

Institution Reviewed: Eastern Michigan University

Program: Advanced Physical Education Date of Review December, 2002

Degree Level: Masters

GUIDELINE

1.1 Are policies determining admission deficiencies identified? Yes X
 No
 Comments on deficiencies:

2.0 Is a minimum of 50% of the program in physical education? Yes X No
 Comments:

3.1 Is a minimum of 15% of the program in research? Yes X
 No
 Comments on quantity and quality of research:

4.0 Are students required to select an area of interest? Yes X
No
 Comments:

4.1 Does an area of interest comprise 25% of the program? Yes X
No

4.2 Is one of the areas of interest in teacher education? Yes X No

5.0 Is the curriculum in physical education varied enough to provide course breadth outside an area of interest? Yes X No

5.1 Do all students have the opportunity to acquire breadth in their program of study? Yes X No

6.0 Is some form of culminating experience required of all students? Yes X No
 Comments on the quality of that experience:

7.0 Are the graduate courses offered appropriate for the master's degree? Yes X
 No

7.2a Are any of the graduate courses offered for concurrent undergraduate credit? Yes No X

7.2b Are courses offered for concurrent undergraduate/graduate credit taught primarily to graduate students and at the graduate level? Yes NA No NA

8.0 Are policies established that limit the maximum number of credit hours that may be transferred from another institution to 20%? Yes X No

9.0 Are policies established that limit the time for which credit may be applied to a degree without revalidation of course competencies? Yes X No

PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATION'S RECOMMENDATION REGARDING COMPLIANCE OR NONCOMPLIANCE WITH THE SPECIALITY GUIDELINES

Eastern Michigan University is in compliance with the NASPE Advanced Guidelines.