

CALL FOR CONTRIBUTIONS

College of Education Porter Monograph

2008-2009 Theme:

“Family, Cultural Diversity and Community: Collaboration for Equity in Education”

The Special Education Department is sponsoring the Annual College of Education Porter Lecture Series for 2008-2009

We are proud to announce that The Porter Scholar Chair in residence at the College of Education will be:

Beth Harry, Ph.D.
Professor, Special Education
Department of Teaching and Learning
University of Miami

Dr. Harry has agreed to come to our campus on three dates in 2008-2009, dates yet to be determined. She is being asked to share her scholarship on the following topics: culturally and linguistically diverse students with disabilities; disproportionate representation of minority students with disabilities, and collaboration with families and communities. More details of her visits will be available late summer.

Visit http://www.education.miami.edu/facultystaff/Faculty_Bio.asp?ID=33 for more information about Dr. Harry.

The Special Education Department Porter Committee extends an open invitation to all faculty, teachers, administrators, students, community activists, and the community-at-large to submit contributions to the Porter Monograph. This includes traditional scholarly contributions such as papers and essay reviews, as well as poetry, photographs, and other artistic/creative works that address the key themes raised by the Porter Chair.

Contributions should be a maximum of 8-10 pages (2000-2500 words) and submitted to:
Special Education Department Porter Committee, 128 Porter, College of Education, Special Education Department, Ypsilanti, MI 48197. E-mail may be sent to:
Dr. Sally Burton-Hoyle at: sburtonh@emich.edu

Deadline for submission: April 10, 2009.
