

Donna M. Gollnick

Donna M. Gollnick is Senior Vice President of the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) where she oversees accreditation activities. In this role she staffs the Unit Accreditation Board, which determines the accreditation status of professional education units. She assists institutions in preparing for accreditation visits, assigns Board of Examiners teams to conduct on-site reviews, and writes articles and handbooks on the accreditation process.

Dr. Gollnick has also been writing about multicultural education for over 25 years. She is the co-author with Philip Chinn of the textbook, Multicultural Education in a Pluralistic Society, which is in its 7th edition. She is co-author of Introduction to the Foundations of American Education, now in its 14th edition and a new introduction to education text entitled The Joy of Teaching. She is also past-president of the National Association for Multicultural Education (NAME). Donna has been recognized by Purdue University as one of its distinguished alumni and received an Advocate for Justice Award from the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education.