

You are invited to participate in a one-week

Eastern Michigan University
Special Education Summer Institute
(SPGN 500 Professional Educator Development Program)
3 graduate credit hours

Sponsored by
The Department of Special Education,
Eastern Michigan University
and offered through
Eastern Michigan University Continuing Education

The details...

- What? Expanding the Dream: Transforming Special Education - Race, Ethnicity, and Gender in Special Education
(SPGN 500 Professional Educator Development Program- Three credit hours)
- When? Monday - Friday
 June 25 - June 29, 2007
 8:00 am - 5:00 pm
- Where? Porter Building, Eastern Michigan University
 (Room to be announced.)
- By? Linda Polter, Karen Schulte, Phil Smith
 Assistant Professors
 Department of Special Education, EMU
- For? Special and General Education Teachers and Administrators (principals, directors, supervisors). This is an excellent opportunity to earn credit hours for certification renewal!

Course Description: This course will focus on examining how race, ethnicity, gender and disability impact schools and will explore ways in which special education can respond to the changing needs of diverse groups by transforming schools into powerful learning communities. Course participants will bridge theory and practice to develop change plans for their schools and districts. Course requirements include completing assigned readings prior to the course, attendance, participation and additional readings during the course, and the development of an action plan for your workplace.

TO REGISTER:

- Pre-registration is required! To pre-register call or email Phil Smith (psmith16@emich.edu or 734-487-7120, ext. 2656) BY FRIDAY, APRIL 13.
- Registration through EMU Continuing Education will take place on the first day of class. E.M.U. graduate tuition rates and registration fees apply.

For More Information, contact Phil Smith (psmith16@emich.edu or 734-487-7120, ext. 2656)