

Professional Development Workshop

Teachers and Counselors: Partners in Supporting Student Success

Presented by

Suzanne M. Dugger, Ed.D.

Professor and School Counseling Program Coordinator
Department of Leadership and Counseling

- ✓ Learn about the important ways in which teachers and counselors should collaborate to maximize student success.
- ✓ Receive valuable information about what a model school counseling program should look like.
- ✓ Find out about ways in which a school counselor can support you in your teaching efforts.
- ✓ Discover why we need MEA to advocate more aggressively for more school counseling positions.

Tuesday December 2nd @ 7:30 PM

Student Center, Room 300

All education students welcome.
