DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE
CAPSTONE PROJECT CONTRACT
MAJOR IN CREATIVE WRITING

This form is to be filled out in the beginning of the final semester at EMU in conjunction with the student’s advisor. The Capstone Project for the Major in Creative Writing includes a public reading and the completion of a chapbook, hybrid text or multi-media project, or other extended work, which the program will keep on file.

Student Name: _______________________________  Student No.: _____________

Email address: _______________________________  (indicate a permanent non-emich email address if possible so that we can stay in touch with alumni in the future)

Anticipated Graduation Date: Fall  Winter  Spring/Summer  Year: ________

Date, Time, and Location of public reading/performance: ______________________________

Title and Description of chapbook, hybrid text or multi-media project, or other extended work (attach an additional sheet if necessary):
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________________

Anticipated date of chapbook completion: __________________________

Student signature: ____________________________  Date: __________________

Advisor signature: ____________________________  Date: __________________