The Equality Knowledge Project provides support for new LGBTQ focused research that directly connects to ongoing issues of equality and inclusion for people in LGBT communities. Each award supports the research process, produces a research report posted to the Equality Research Center website, and a lecture on the campus of Eastern Michigan University in 2016.

Award Recipients

Americans’ View on Denial of Service to Same-Sex Couples and Interracial Couples
Landon Schnabel, Indiana University

LGBT Rights and their Impact on Anti-LGB Hate Crimes
Elizabeth Coston, Stonybrook University

Disgust and the Dynamics of LGBT Politics
Logan Casey, University of Michigan

Organizational Inequality and the Policing of LGBTQ Military Sexual and Gender Identities: Post-Don’t Ask Don’t Tell Repeal
Courtney Caviness, University of California-Davis

OUTcasts: LGBTQ Homeless Youth Surviving in the South
Brandon Robinson, University of Texas-Austin

Invisible Violence, Invisible Victims: The Health Related Consequences of Same-Sex and Intimate LGBT Partner Violence
Bethany Coston, Albion College

The Equality Knowledge Project is supported by the Division of Academic Affairs, College of Arts and Sciences, and the Department of Communication, Media, and Theatre Arts.

Equality Research Center
www.emich.edu/equality