The relationship calls for adequate communication among these components and full opportunity for joint planning effort.”

and endorses these suggested guidelines for decision making:
(1) “Important areas of action involve, at one time or another, the initiating capacity and decision making participation of all institutional components.”
(2) “Differences in the weight of each voice, from one point to the next, should be determined by reference to the responsibility of each component for the particular matter at hand.”

III. AREAS OF RESPONSIBILITY

A. Areas of Joint Responsibility
The Joint Statement on the Government of Colleges and Universities delineates three broad areas of joint responsibility: determining a general education policy, internal operations and external relations. In all cases, care shall be taken to inform the Provost when advice is given to the President and to inform both the President and Provost when advice is given to the Regents.

C. Faculty Perspectives
The Faculty Senate recognizes that many of our most treasured faculty prerogatives in curriculum and instruction are best exercised at the individual, department or college level and will champion the principle of local faculty control, free of unnecessary restrictions or encroachments, where such control is feasible and consistent with the EMU-AAUP Master Agreement.

If the time remaining in the term is long, the department may wish to elect a new alternate member. In any event, the alternate must inform the President that he/she is taking the place of the member and for what duration. In such cases, the department should inform the President that the change has been made.

D. Removal from Office
Should it be determined that a member of Senate (regular or alternate) is unable or unfit to continue as a representative, Senate shall inform the department and the faculty in the department shall have the prerogative to recall the representative by whatever means they deem advisable, and to elect a new representative to fill the unexpired term.
