

TUITION WAIVER GUIDELINES

The Tuition Waiver program is designed to enable eligible employees, their spouses, and their dependent children to enroll in courses at Eastern Michigan University with reduced tuition or no tuition charges. Documentation may be required in order to verify the relationship of the dependents, if they are not already listed as spouse/dependents on the employee's medical or dental plans.

Eligibility

The tuition waiver program requires that the employee, spouse or dependents are accepted and registered for classes prior to applying for the tuition waiver program. Eligibility to receive the tuition waiver is determined by the employee's e-class and current date of hire for each employee.

Employee E-class	Eligibility	Spouse / Dependent Eligibility
AC/AH/AP/CA	Term following date of hire	Term following date of hire

- If you are a Graduate Assistant or Doctoral Fellow, your tuition is paid through its own program, not the tuition waiver program. Please contact the Human Resources Office for details.

WORKING HOURS AGREEMENT FOR EMPLOYEE TUITION WAIVER

The University's Collective Bargaining Agreements provide that employees taking advantage of the Tuition Waiver Program must take classes during non-working hours unless they are UAW Local 1975 members taking word processing or computer-related course work that has been approved by the University.

Working hours are defined as any time employees are regularly scheduled to work.

As most University employees are granted a duty-free 60 minutes lunch period, it is preferred that this time be utilized for taking classes. It is also possible for employees, with the approval of their supervisor, to work through the specified lunch period and designate a different one-hour period during the day as the lunch period, during which Tuition Waiver course work may be pursued.

Employees taking classes, which meet on two-day schedules for periods greater than one hour, may make arrangements with their supervisors for flexible scheduling. Time taken beyond 60 minutes for course work is expected to be made up in its entirety.

Note to supervisors: There is no contractual obligation to make scheduling changes. Alternate scheduling should only be undertaken, if your operational needs will not be adversely affected.

I have read these provisions and scheduling arrangements to take classes, in lieu of lunch, have been made for:

(Semester)

(Course Name) (Credit Hrs.) (Time)

It is the responsibility of all employees using the Tuition Waiver benefit to know and understand the policy and procedures related to the Tuition Waiver. Additional details related to this benefit can be found in the Collective Bargaining Agreement for each e-class.
