EASTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

Honors Band 2010

FACT SHEET

- When: January 8-10, 2010
- Where: On the campus of Eastern Michigan University. Honors Band students will be housed overnight at an area hotel and supervised the entire weekend. Activities will culminate in a concert performance at Pease Auditorium on Sunday afternoon at 2 pm.
- Who: Approximately 85 student musicians will be selected to participate in the EMU Honors Band. Students who would like to be considered for participation must audition during their attendance at the Wind & Percussion Clinic Day on November 21, 2009.
- Fee: $150 (includes all meals, housing, transportation, instruction, social events, and a CD of the concert).
- Scholarships: Up to four outstanding student-musicians will be awarded full scholarships to participate in Honors Band, based on audition results.

Honors Band Audition Requirements

- Brass and woodwind students should prepare a brief excerpt of a solo or etude that displays the extent of their technical and expressive abilities.
- Percussion students should be prepared to play a short solo of their choice on snare drum, a mallet instrument (marimba, xylophone etc.), and, if possible, timpani. Sight reading and timpani tuning will also be included.

Sponsored by the EMU Department of Music and Dance.
