DILLMAN SCHOLARSHIP AWARD (awarded for 2012 – 2013)

A number of Dillman Scholarships for upper-class, undergraduate students (juniors and above during the award period; current sophomores may apply) in the amount of up to $2000 will be awarded each year from the bequest left to Eastern Michigan University by Mrs. Jessie Dillman. Applicants must be admitted as a full-time music major to an undergraduate degree program in the Department of Music and Dance both Fall and Winter semesters in which they will hold the award, enrolled in a minimum of 12 academic hours both semesters, and have a cumulative GPA of 3.0.

The Scholarship will be awarded on the basis of a high level of ability in performance or creativity based upon submitted materials. Creativity is to be interpreted broadly i.e., composition, research, teaching, potential, etc.

Application

To be considered for this award a student must do the following:
