Why a graduate certificate from EMU?

- Relevant courses
- Flexible schedules
- Affordable
- Exceptional faculty
- Convenient location in the metropolitan Detroit area

At Eastern Michigan University, you can earn a graduate certificate in nonprofit management as a post-graduate program or as an entree to an M.B.A., M.P.A., M.S.A., M.S.W., M.L.S. or other graduate degree program in a 12-15-credit hour (five-course) graduate program. Classes are small and taught by exceptional faculty who have advanced degrees, do applied research and are closely connected with the nonprofit community in southeast Michigan including Washtenaw County.

What is your next step?

1. Review the nonprofit graduate certificate section of the web site www.emich.edu/nonprofit
2. Complete an application for graduate admissions either online or manually at www.emich.edu/admissions/apply. Indicate the NPMG.

3. Talk with a faculty adviser identified on the above web site to plan your program. Dr. Don Koyloglu in Political Science sukru.koyluoglu@emich.edu
4. Register for classes with your my.emich account. Course schedules are available on the nonprofit web site. See also <http://insight.emich.edu>
