

Preservation Eastern Field Trip!

Marshall, Michigan

October 16, 2005

Honolulu House in Marshall

The Marshall Historic District is one of Michigan's largest National Historic Landmarks with over 750 buildings constructed between 1830 and 1930. We will be providing a bus to Marshall that will seat 50 people and will depart from EMU. If you are not interested in riding the bus you are more than welcome to meet us at the Honolulu House in Marshall and to join us for lunch.

Schedule:

10:00 Meet at Strong Hall to board bus to Marshall

11:30 Tour the Historic Honolulu House

1:00 Eat Lunch at Schuler's

2:00 Bus Tour of Historic Marshall (approx. 1hr.)

3:15 Free time to walk around and enjoy the Festival

5:00 Board bus to return home

Cost: The total cost for one person will average $37.00 for the day. We look forward to seeing you there!

Please RSVP by October 10th by signing up outside Dr. Ligibel's Office or by e-mailing nthomas79@yahoo.com with a subject labeled "trip".
