Dear Readers:

It is a pleasure to recommend Professor Ernest Brandon for Emeritus Faculty Status at EMU. Professor Brandon has served the University with distinction as a professor of music for the past 33 years, teaching Voice, Singer's Diction, and directing the Women's Chorus. In addition, his service to the Department has been exemplary, and has most recently included chairing the Election and Awards Committee and coordinating our student recitals. His students have appreciated his kindness and patience as well as his vast knowledge of vocal technique and literature, his depth of musical understanding, and his unflagging enthusiasm in search of beauty. His colleagues have found him to be supportive, cooperative, and delightfully refreshing.

It has been my privilege to serve, team-teach, and perform with Professor Brandon for the past nineteen years, and I am delighted to have this opportunity to present him to you for Emeritus status.

Sincerely,

Garik Pedersen
Professor of Music
