A Decade of Change: The Purposeful Progression of a Fraternity/Sorority Community

Noah Borton, Greek Life Coordinator, and David Monge, Campus Life Council representative and member of Sigma Nu fraternity, provided a comprehensive look at the changes in the fraternity/sorority community over the past decade. Eastern's Greek Community consists of three councils: Interfraternity Council, College Panhellenic Council and the National Pan-Hellenic Council. The report was framed around EMU's Greek Standards and Assessment Program that was adopted in 2005. The report provided a snapshot of the old Greek social environment and the progress that has been made in defining a new social environment – including the increased demand for social opportunities that don't involve alcohol.

Information was also presented on the impact that Greek affiliation has on its members in the areas of intellectual development, leadership development, integration of purpose, positive relationships and civic engagement. Highlights for the 2010 academic year include:

- a new academic policy and constitutional structure for the NPHC
- the Photo Voice Project – an exhibition of photographs from members of EMU's Greek community on the impact of alcohol on their lives

- An exhibition and discussion of mental health issues in the Greek community
- Working to host the 2011 Out and Greek Conference which addresses LGBT issues as they relate to Greek life. Six Eastern Michigan University students attended this year's conference
- Development of "Fraternities and Sororities Together for Wellness and Responsible Decision-Making" (FASTforWARD), a new program to address concerns involving alcohol awareness and confrontation, mental health, sexual assault and gender roles in the social environment.

The presentation concluded with a powerful student-produced video created to speak to the need for and promote the FASTforWARD program.

Regent Clack thanked Mr. Borton and Mr. Monge for their excellent presentation and for the work they are doing on behalf of the EMU Greek community.

There being no other business, the meeting adjourned at 2:40 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
