

Office of Research Development and Administration
Award Report: February 2020
$1,186,123

Joseph Breza, Psychology, Principal Investigator

National Institutes of Health, $144,086

Lightly Salted: An Optogenetic Approach to Uncover the Role of Type I Cells in Salt Taste Transduction (Year 3)

Sarah Shea, School of Social Work, Principal Investigator

Michigan Department of Health and Human Services, $334,054

Research-based training curriculum for foster, adoptive and kinship parents

Carmen McCallum, Leadership and Counseling, Principal Investigator

National Science Foundation, $498,194

Mentoring for Life: Enhancing STEM Graduate Student Well-Being

Jessica Alexander, Engage, Project Director

Washtenaw County, $30,000

Family Empowerment Program, County Support, for 2020

Robert Heighes, Jr., Public Safety, Project Director

Michigan Department of State Police, $50,000

Campus Safety Through Infrastructure Improvements

Ellen Gold, Student Affairs, Project Director

Michigan Department of State Police, $49,789

Create a Respectful Environment for Survivors (CARE)

Ethan Lowenstein, Teacher Education, Principal Investigator

National Oceanic Atmospheric Administration, $80,000

Stormwater Stewards: Youth-Led Responses to Community Watershed Challenges

