

AFC 402L4 - African American Studies Internship Seminar (GELB)

The African American Studies Internship Seminar is designed as a practicum in which majors and minors in African American Studies can acquire a practical experience of an African American organization.

Credit Hours: 3 hrs

Grade Mode: Normal (A-F)

Typically offered Fall and Winter

Prerequisite(s): AFC 101 and AFC 201 and AFC 233

This course fulfills the
LEARNING BEYOND THE CLASSROOM
category of the General Education Program.

Notes -

Students who do not meet prerequisite requirements may request department permission to enroll in the course.

Equivalent to AFC 402, AAS 402

Previously listed as AFC 402, AAS 402

Last Updated:

Course rotation 08/2014; Change course number for Gen Ed 7/2014, effective Fall 2015, Prefix Change 2/2013, effective Summer 2013