Brings you...

A Day of Social Justice

The School of Social Work invites you to a luncheon and a keynote speech by social justice advocate Yvonne Willis-Dulin, followed by an afternoon of interdisciplinary workshops focused on race and social justice for social workers.

When: September 25th. 12p.m. to 3:45p.m.
Where: McKenny Hall Ballroom

Keynote:
Racial and Social Justice: Living the Experience
Presented By: Yvonne Willis-Dulin

Workshops:
The Ongoing Struggle to Create Socially Just Schools
Presented by: Shayla Griffin, PhD
Teaching Race in the Classroom
Presented by: Doris Fields, PhD
Privilege Checklists: Unpacking the Invisible Knapsacks of class, race, gender, heterosexuality, and more.
Presented by: Paul Leighton, PhD
Supporting Conversations between and among Girls and Women
Presented by: Sylvia Jones, PhD

Timeline:
Noon: Lunch
12:45: Keynote
1:15: Break
1:30: Workshops
2:30: Break
2:45: Workshops
3:45: End of day

All participants must register, as the number of seats is limited. The cost is $10. Please RSVP online at: