

General Education Review Committee meeting of November 12th, 2014

At this meeting the committee further discussed the open ended comments from the instructor survey. This discussion will be continued at the next meeting, as will a department head survey and subcommittee updates.