

General Education Review Committee meeting of March 18th, 2015

The committee continued the discussion on recommendations for the various criteria initiated in the March 4th meeting. It was agreed that the subcommittee drafts would be put into a unified document for review before the next meeting. At that meeting, the committee will rank the recommendations and consider themes for the executive summary.