

General Education Review Committee meeting of April 1st, 2015

The committee continued discussion of the draft final report. It was agreed that the recommendation regarding a technology requirement be strengthened. Consistency in terminology throughout the document was discussed and changes on specific criteria were noted. Additional revisions will be included in a revised draft for the next meeting on April 15th.