

General Education Review Committee meeting of April 22nd, 2015

Discussion of the final report continued. Revisions for the technology component have been integrated into the report. Line item changes to the report were discussed and the five criteria covered in the report were reviewed. Electronic communication will continue, with changes to be finalized by May 1st.