

General Education Review Committee meeting of December 3rd, 2014

At this meeting the committee worked on deciding on data requirements based on the CAS Program Review template and other sources they have considered. At the next meeting the viability of these sources and possible benchmark institutions will be discussed. In January data analysis will be finished and recommendations brainstormed.