

Eastern Michigan University College of Health and Human Services Presents:

Friday, October 25, 2019
from 9am to 12:00pm EST
Halle Library Auditorium)

The Seventh Annual Health Care for Older Adults: International Teleconference

Presentations will include:

U.S. Speakers

“Bullying among Older Adults” Janet M. Hunko, LMSW Director, Housing Bureau for Seniors at Michigan Medicine, Ann Arbor, Michigan.
Lecturer, EMU School of Social Work

“Legal Developments in Elder Abuse” Roxanne J.
Chang, JD, MS LLP, Elder Care Attorney, Plymouth, Michigan

“Issues associated with Guardianship and Conservatorship in Michigan”. Diane L. Fenske
LMSW, Lecturer - School of Social Work,
Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti,
Michigan

Ukrainian Speakers

“Violence against Older Adults in the War Zone”.
Dzvensilava Chaykivska, Secretary General of the International Charity Organization “Caritas Ukraine”

“Observing the Rights of Elders in Ukrainian Geriatric Institutions”. Irina Sergienko, Office of the Ombudsman in Ukraine.

“The Role of Medical Chaplains in Advocating for the Protection of Older Patients”. Sergey Dmitriev, Priest of the Orthodox Church of Ukraine, Director of the NGO Eleos Ukraine.

Organizer and Moderator for the Teleconference is David Thomas, Ed.D, CTRS, Professor of Therapeutic Recreation and Gerontology, Eastern Michigan University.

For more information contact:
David Thomas, Ed.D, CTRS
Phone: 734.487.6839
Email: dthomas@emich.edu

An international teleconference titled:
“Interdisciplinary Trends in Health Care for Older Adults” involving faculty from the College of Health & Human Services and internationally renowned gerontologists from the Institute of Gerontology and the Post Graduate Medical Academy in Kiev, Ukraine

