This meeting shall be completed within ten (10) working days after the written notice of grievance is filed. A written answer to the grievance shall be provided to the grievant and the union within five (5) working days following the meeting.

- 136 If a mutually agreeable resolution is reached at this Step, the resolution shall be reduced to writing, signed by the parties, and a copy provided to the Union, the Dean, and the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs.
- 137 2. Step II
- 138 If the grievance is not resolved at Step I, the Union, may, within ten (10) working days of the Step I response, appeal the grievance to the Dean of the College in which the Employee is employed (or other appropriate administrative representative) with a copy to the Employee's Department Head/School Director (or other appropriate administrative representative), and the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs. Such appeal shall be made in writing, and shall set forth the Union's objections to the Step I response.
- 139 The Dean (or other appropriate administrative representative) will schedule a meeting with the Union to discuss the grievance with the Grievant(s), the Union's representatives, the Department Head/School Director (or other appropriate administrative representative) and other such person(s) she/he deems appropriate. Such an appeal shall be made in writing and shall set forth the Union's objections to the Step II response.
- 143 The Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs or his/her designee will schedule a meeting with the Union to discuss the grievance with the grievant(s), the Union's representative(s), the Department Head/School Director, Dean, or other appropriate administrative representative(s) involved at Step I and Step II, and such other person(s) she/he deems appropriate. The meeting shall be completed within ten (10) working days after the grievance is appealed to Step III as above provided. A written answer to the grievance shall be provided to the grievant and the union within five (5) working days following the meeting.

144 If a mutually agreeable resolution is reached at this Step, the resolution shall be reduced to writing, signed by the parties, and a copy provided to the union, the Department Head/School Director, and the Dean (or other appropriate administrative representative(s)).

145 If no mutually agreeable resolution is reached, the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs or his/her designee must present his/her reasons for denial of the grievance in writing to the grievant(s) with a copy to the Union, the Department Head/School Director and the Dean (or other appropriate administrative representative(s)) within five (5) working days following the Step III meeting.

146 4. Step IV – Arbitration

149 Procedural issues not otherwise covered by this Agreement with respect to the conduct of the hearing, subpoenas, adjournments, etc., shall be referred to the arbitrator who shall decide same based upon the then current rules of the American Arbitration Association.

150 The Arbitrator shall have no power to add to, subtract from, or modify the terms of this Agreement, nor shall he/she exercise any responsibility or function of the Employer or the Union. This is not intended to restrict the authority of the Arbitrator to the determination of issues of procedural compliance only, and he/she shall have the authority to determine substantive questions properly presented in accordance with the terms of the Grievance Procedure. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties and may be enforced in any court of competent jurisdiction.

The parties shall bear their own expenses individually and share the Arbitrator’s fee and expenses equally.

ARTICLE XV APPOINTMENTS | NOTE: See MOU on Page 41

152 Appointments under this Agreement will follow the procedures described below effective Winter Semester 2018.

153 A. Posting

154 1. Prior to hiring any new Employee, the hiring department shall, notify by email all current Employees and eligible Employees (the latter as defined in Article XV, Section C, “Layoff”), in the hiring department of the teaching assignments or available work. The hiring department shall give priority in hiring to qualified current Employees who respond to the notification within five (5) working days. Whenever practicable, the hiring department shall use the Employer’s web-based posting system to announce and invite applications for existing or potential vacancies.

- 155 2. The posting will list the minimum qualifications necessary for a candidate to be considered for the teaching position, or available work, and will include a general description of the responsibilities of the position(s).
- 156 3. Whenever practicable, postings will remain open for at least ten (10) consecutive business days before an offer is made to an external candidate. A single posting may result in an offer made to one or more candidates. The ten (10) consecutive business days will be concurrent with A.1. above where applicable.
- 157 4. The Employer will provide a link to its posting website on the Academic Human Resources website.

158 B. Appointments

- 159 1. An offer to hire an Employee is in the sole discretion of the Employer, which shall take into consideration such things as his/her availability, qualifications and his/her suitability for the stated requirements of the position(s).
- 160 2. The Employee's step and specific work to be performed will be described to the selected candidate in a letter of offer which will include an initial salary, the period of time for the work to be performed, and specific responsibilities and duties of the position. The letter of offer will include a reference and web link to the Employee's rights under this collective bargaining agreement. The letter of offer shall be signed by the Department Head or other authorized representative of the Employer. As soon as possible, the candidate will return a copy of this letter of offer with his/her signature as an acceptance of its terms.
- 161 3. Employees have no right of re-hire or continuing employment beyond the period of employment described in their letters of offer. Since employment ends at the conclusion of the assignment described in the letter of offer, decisions not to hire an Employee in future semesters are not subject to the grievance procedure.
- 162 4. For current Employees, the letter of offer shall be delivered via email as PDF or MS Word document as work becomes available
- 163 5. As soon as possible, the candidate will return a copy of this letter of offer with his/her signature as an acceptance of its terms.
- 164 6. A system of employment with two (2) steps is implemented for the Employees under this Agreement: Part-Time Lecturer A and Part-Time Lecturer B.
- 165 7. All initial appointments shall be at the Lecturer A step, except for candidates who have previously held Full-Time Lecturer positions with the Employer, whose initial appointment shall be at the Part-Time Lecturer B step.

166 8. Part-Time Lecturers who have met or exceeded expectations in their most recent evaluations will promote immediately upon completion of the required number of semesters as outlined in the table below;

Step	Semesters Employed
Part-Time Lecturer A	0-4
Part-Time Lecturer B	5+

167 a. For the purposes of counting “semester employed”, any course or courses taught during any fall or winter semester will count as one (1) semester taught or employed. Summer semesters are not included in this calculation.

168 b. Regardless of the number of terms or sub-terms employed during a fall or winter semester, the totality of the semester will equate to one (1) semester employed.

169 9. A Part-Time Lecturer at any level who has not been rehired at Eastern Michigan University for six (6) consecutive fall and winter semesters will be eligible to be rehired at Part-Time Lecturer A.

170 10. Due to the fluctuating nature of part-time work, Employees do not have reasonable assurance of rehire. Final determination regarding appointment levels shall be at the sole discretion of the Employer, subject to the guidelines below.

171 a. The Employer will make every reasonable effort to maintain a Part-Time Lecturer As and Bs minimum appointment level as determined below, if work is available and they meet the qualifications for the courses or assignments.

172 b. The order of assignment for qualified Employees shall be Part-Time Lecturer Bs before Part-Time Lecturer As, pursuant to the minimum appointments as described below.

173 c. Fall Semester Appointments: The Fall Semester appointment will be determined by averaging the Employee’s fall assignment over the last three (3) years. Semesters where no work was assigned are excluded.

174 1. For Part-Time Lecturer Bs who have met or exceeded expectations in their most recent evaluation, the minimum assignment will be two-thirds (2/3) of the amount determined above rounded up to the nearest whole number.

- 175 2. For Part-Time Lecturer As who have met or exceeded expectations in their most recent evaluation, the minimum assignment will be two-thirds (2/3) of the amount determined above rounded up to the nearest whole number.
- 176 d. Winter Semester Appointments. The Winter Semester appointment will be determined by averaging the Employee's winter assignment over the last three (3) years. Semesters where no work was assigned are excluded.
- 177 1. For Part-Time Lecturer Bs who have met or exceeded expectations in their most recent evaluation, the minimum assignment will be two-thirds (2/3) of the amount determined above rounded up to the nearest whole number.
- 178 2. For Part-Time Lecturer As who have met or exceeded expectations in their most recent evaluation, the minimum assignment will be two-thirds (2/3) of the amount determined above rounded up to the nearest whole number.
- 179 As an example, for an Employee whose fall assignment was teaching six (6), three (3), and six (6) credit hours over the last three fall semesters, their two-thirds (2/3) average would be 3.33, which would then be rounded up to four (4) credit hours. A three (3) credit hour course does not meet this minimum.
- 180 11. Upon attainment of Part-Time Lecturer B status, the Employer will assign a two (2) semester appointment (Fall and Winter), if work is available and they meet the qualifications for the courses or assignments.
- 181 C. Layoff
- 182 1. Definitions:
- 183 a. A layoff is an involuntary separation from employment that occurs after an offer letter has been signed by an Employee but prior to the end of the employment period for which the offer has been made.
- 184 b. A partial layoff is an involuntary reduction in the percent of work described in the offer letter that occurs after an offer letter has been signed by an Employee.
- 185 Assuming qualifications for the assignment are met, the order of layoff shall be Part-Time Lecturers A, then Part-Time Lecturers B.

- 186 2. Except as provided below, the order of layoff for Employees within each step shall be on the basis of expertise, ability, and performance relevant to the assignment in question as determined by the Employer.
- 187 3. When there is no substantial difference in the degree of expertise, ability, and performance relevant to the assignment in question between two (2) or more Employees within each step, the order of layoff shall be in the order of lowest number of semesters employed.
- 188 4. If the date of the notice of layoff is on or after the first day of classes of the semester for which the layoff applies, the academic unit may either determine the order of layoff in accordance with the provisions above, or by the actual section or course cancellation (i.e., those Employees assigned to cancelled course(s) or section(s) could be selected for layoff).
- 189 5. Notice of full or partial layoff will be provided by the Employer as soon as possible after the decision is made, and will include the reason(s) for the reduction as well as language regarding recall privileges as indicated in Sections E and F below.

190 D. Recall

- 191 1. It is the responsibility of the Employee on the layoff status list to provide current contact information and updated application materials to the academic unit. An Employee on layoff status will be directed to check the Employer's web-based posting system for appointment opportunities. Employees on layoff who want to be considered for existing or potential openings in other disciplines should file an application(s) on Eastern Michigan University's Jobs website. An Employee will be notified of a recall offer via U.S. mail and electronic mail by the academic unit.
- 192 2. An Employee on layoff retains rights of recall for two years or until s/he has failed to accept offers of recall in two consecutive semesters, whichever is sooner. An Employee must provide written notice of acceptance of an offer within seven (7) working days, pursuant to Article XV.A.1. While on layoff status, an Employee who fails to accept an offer of recall will be given the same rights to notice and opportunities for recall that the Employee had prior to not accepting the offer of recall.
- 193 3. If an Employee does not reply to an offer of recall as described above, the academic unit is under no obligation to offer the Employee another recall opportunity.

194 E. Recall Priority

- 195 Assuming qualifications for the assignment are met, the order of recall shall be Lecturers B, then Lecturers A.
- 196 1. The order of recall for Employees within each step within an academic unit shall be based on expertise, ability, and performance relevant to the assignment in question as determined by the Employer, pursuant to Article XV.B above.
- 197 2. When there is no substantial difference in the degree of expertise, ability, and performance relevant to the assignment in question between two (2) or more Employees within each step, recall shall be in order of largest number of semesters employed.
- 198 3. Employees placed on layoff status retain the same access to general EMU facilities as Employees not on layoff. For example, such Employees may visit and use museums, galleries, special collections, and libraries with regular faculty borrowing privileges. After meeting specific fee requirements, Employees may also continue to participate in campus parking, use recreational sport facilities, and obtain athletic tickets. Additionally, Employees on layoff will continue to have full use of the email system. Other than the benefits described in this section, Employees on layoff will have no right to any compensation or benefits.

ARTICLE XVI LEAVES OF ABSENCE

- 199 A. Paid Leave Days
- 200 Each Employee will be granted three (3) days of paid leave per semester of assignment (Fall, Winter, Summer). Notice of absence must be given to the Department Head/School Director as promptly as possible so arrangements for coverage can be made.
- 201 Paid leave may be used on any day for which an Employee is scheduled to work. An Employee will be considered absent if the Employee fails to appear for his/her regularly scheduled duties.
- 202 B. Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA)
- 203 1. An Employee who has been employed by the Employer for at least twelve (12) months and has worked at least 1,250 hours during the twelve (12) month period immediately preceding the Employee's request for leave under the FMLA, or the date on which the leave commences, whichever comes first, will be granted up to twelve (12) workweeks of unpaid FMLA leave during any calendar year (January 1st through December 31st) for any one or more of the following events:

- 204 a. For a birth of a child of the Employee and to care for such child.
- 205 b. For the placement of a child with the Employee for adoption or foster care.
- 206 c. To care for a spouse, Additional Eligible Adult (AEA), child, or parent of the Employee if the former has a serious health condition, or
- 207 d. Because of a serious health condition of the Employee which renders the Employee unable to perform the functions of the Employee's position.
- 208 2. The taking of a FMLA leave will not result in the loss of any employment benefits accrued prior to the date on which the leave commenced; provided, however, that nothing in this sentence shall be construed to entitle any Employee who returns from leave to the accrual of any employment benefits during the period of the leave or to any right, benefit, or position other than that to which the Employee would have been entitled had the Employee not taken the leave.
- 209 3. Employees who take a FMLA leave for the intended purpose of the leave will be entitled, on return from leave, to be restored by the Employer to the position of employment held by the Employee when the leave commenced or an equivalent position with equivalent employment benefits, pay, percentage of appointment and other terms and conditions of employment.
- 210 4. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph B.1. above, an unpaid family leave of up to twelve (12) workweeks for the birth/care of a child or for the placement of a child in an Employee's home for adoption or foster care may be taken at any time within the twelve (12) month period which starts on the day of such birth or placement for adoption or foster care. However, regardless of when the leave commences, it will expire no later than the end of the twelve (12) month period. For example, an Employee who requests a leave at the start of the twelfth month (of the twelve (12) month period from the date of birth or placement) is entitled to only four (4) workweeks of unpaid leave.
- 211 5. Spouses or AEAs, both of whom are employed by the Employer, are limited to a combined total of twelve (12) workweeks of unpaid FMLA leave during any twelve (12) month period for the birth/care of their child, placement of a child in their home for adoption or foster care, or for the care of a parent with a serious health condition. However, each Employee may use up to twelve (12) workweeks of unpaid leave during any twelve (12) month period to care for the Employee's child or spouse who is suffering from a serious health condition.
- 212 6. An eligible Employee who foresees the need for a leave of absence due to the birth/care of a child or the placement of a child in the Employee's home for adoption or foster care, must notify the Department Head/School Director, in writing, not less than thirty (30) calendar days in advance of the start date of the leave. If not foreseeable, the Employee must provide as much written notice as is practicable under the circumstances.

- 213 7. An eligible Employee who foresees the need for a leave of absence due to planned medical treatment for the Employee's spouse, AEA, child or parent should notify the Department Head/School Director, in writing, as early as possible so that the absence can be scheduled at a time least disruptive to Employer operations. Such an Employee must also give at least thirty (30) calendar days written notice, unless it is impractical to do so, in which case the Employee must provide as much written notice as circumstances permit.
- 214 8. An Employee on an approved FMLA leave should keep the Department Head/School Director informed regarding the Employee's status and intent to return to work upon conclusion of the leave.
- 215 9. If a requested leave is because of a serious health condition of the Employee which renders the Employee unable to perform the functions of the Employee's position, or to care for a spouse, AEA, child or parent who has a serious health condition, the Employee may be required to file with the Employer, in a timely manner, a health care provider's certification or such recertification's as may reasonably be required by the Employer. Similarly, as a condition of restoring an Employee whose FMLA leave was occasioned by the Employee's own serious health condition, the Employer may also require the Employee to obtain and present certification from the Employee's health care provider that the Employee is able to resume work. All required certifications or recertifications shall conform to the FMLA's certification requirements.
- 216 10. In any case in which the Employer has reason to doubt the validity of the health care provider's statement or certification for leaves taken under paragraphs B.1.c. and B.1.d., the Employer may, at its expense, require second and third opinions as specified by the FMLA to resolve the issue.
- 217 11. A leave taken under paragraph B.1.a. or B.1.b. above shall not be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule unless the Employer and the Employee agree otherwise. Subject to the limitations and certifications allowed by the FMLA, a leave taken under paragraph B.1.c. above may be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule when medically necessary; provided, however, that where such leave is foreseeable based upon planned medical treatment, the Employer may require the Employee to transfer temporarily to an available alternative position offered by the Employer for which the Employee is qualified and that has equivalent pay and benefits and better accommodates recurring periods of leave than the Employee's regular position.

218 12. The provisions of paragraphs B.1-B.11 above are intended to comply with the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, and any terms used herein will be as defined in the Act. To the extent that these or any other provisions of this Collective Bargaining Agreement are in violation of the Act, the language of the Act prevails. The FMLA provisions do not impair any rights granted under other provisions of this Agreement.

219 C. Bereavement Leave

220 An Employee will be allowed three (3) consecutive calendar days without loss of pay or benefits, to attend the funeral of a member of the Employee's immediate family. Such days shall be taken between the day of death and the day after the funeral. "Immediate family" for purposes of this provision shall be defined as: husband, wife, AEA, father, mother, child, sister, brother, mother-in-law, father-in-law, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, step child, legal ward, foster child, grandparent, and an individual who stood in loco parentis to an Employee when the Employee was a child. Persons who are "in loco parentis" include those with day-to-day responsibilities to care for and financially support a person, when the person was a child.

221 In those limited instances where extenuating circumstances associated with the death of a member of the Employee's immediate family (e.g., the geographic location of the funeral and/or legal obligations that must be assumed by an Employee) necessitate an extended leave of absence on the part of the Employee, the Employee may request approval of up to two (2) additional days of Bereavement Leave, which requests will not be unreasonably denied by the Employer.

222 An Employee who wishes to attend the funeral of someone outside of the Employee's immediate family may take one-half (1/2) day with pay, with the permission of the Department Head/School Director.

223 D. Extenuating Circumstances

224 1. Any Employee who has taught at least four (4) fall and/or winter semesters within the last four (4) years and who is unavailable to work due to extenuating circumstances may request an extenuating circumstances leave of not more than one (1) fall or winter semester and, if applicable, one (1) summer semester (inclusive of all summer terms or sub-terms), not including the semester during which the Employee requested the leave.

225 2. The Employee bears the responsibility to communicate their availability to return to work to the Employer. The Employee will be eligible to return if work is available and they are qualified for the assignment.

226 3. If the extenuating circumstances leave was due to medical circumstances, an Employee may request an extension for a period not to exceed one (1) semester in addition to the leave provided above in D.1. The Employer may require the Employee to submit a fitness for return-to-duty report from the Employee's physician prior to any return to work. The Employee will be eligible to return if work is available and they are qualified for the assignment.

227 E. Jury Duty

228 Employees will suffer no loss in compensation when called to perform jury duty service. The Employer will pay the difference between jury compensation and the Employee's regular Employer compensation. When an Employee is temporarily excused from jury duty service, he/she is expected to return to work.

229 F. Military Leave

230 1. A military leave without pay shall be granted upon request of any Employee who enters active military service of the United States, or civilian services of the United States which are an essential part of the national defense program. Upon conclusion of the leave the Employee shall be subject to reinstatement in accordance with the provisions of applicable federal or state law.

231 2. An Employee who is ordered to active duty during an academic period in which the Employee is scheduled to work shall, at the Employee's request, be granted military leave to engage in a temporary tour of duty with the National Guard, or any recognized branch of the United States Military Service. If the Employee's military pay is less than the Employee's regular Employer salary, the Employer will pay the Employee the difference for a maximum of fifteen (15) working days in any tour of duty or calendar year, whichever is the longer period. Such leave shall be credited as continuing service.

232 3. Military Family Leave Provision

Eligible Employees with a spouse, son, daughter, or parent on active duty or call to active duty status in the National Guard or Reserves in support of a contingency operation may use their twelve (12) week leave entitlement to address certain qualifying exigencies. Qualifying exigencies may include attending certain military events, arranging for alternative childcare, addressing certain financial and legal arrangements, attending certain counseling sessions, and attending post-deployment reintegration briefings.

233 FMLA also includes a special entitlement that permits eligible Employees to take up to twenty-six (26) weeks of leave to care for a covered service member during a single twelve (12) month period. A covered service member is a current member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who has a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of duty on active duty that may render the service member medically unfit to perform the Employee's duties for which the service member is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy; or is in outpatient status; or is on the temporary disability retired list.

234 4. Time Limits for Military Leave

Where practicable, applications for Military Leaves under paragraph F.1 above, or extensions thereof, shall be submitted at least ninety (90) calendars days before the beginning of the semester the leave, or extension thereof, is desired to commence.

235 G. Leave Conditions

236 1. Approval of Leaves

237 To the extent permitted by applicable state and federal law, all leaves require advance administrative approval, which approval will be given in all instances where the terms and conditions of this Agreement have been satisfied. Where practicable, the Employee shall provide the Employee's Department Head/School Director with as much advance notice as possible of the need to utilize said leave. Said notice shall be framed with sufficient particularity to advise the Department Head of the reason for the absence and to establish its compensable nature under the terms of this Agreement. If advance notice is not practicable, the Employee shall provide as much notice as circumstances permit. The Department Head/School Director may require said notice to be in writing. If an Employee's absence is determined to be not compensable under the terms of this provision, it shall be regarded as lost time and the Employee's pay reduced.

238 2. Time Limits

239 Where practicable, the Employee will be notified of authorization of the Employee's leave in writing within five (5) working days of submitting an application for a leave, or extension thereof.

263 e. The Employee must take courses during non-working hours.

264 2. An eligible Employee shall forfeit tuition waiver benefits and must reimburse the full cost of such benefits to the Employer if:

265 a. A grade of "pass", or "C" or above ("B" for graduate courses) is not achieved in any course for which tuition waiver is obtained (Grades of "C-" in undergraduate courses and "B-" in graduate courses are unacceptable).

266 b. A mark of "Incomplete" (I) is received and not converted to a passing grade within one (1) year following termination of the semester in which the course was taken, or the date the Employee's employment terminates, whichever is earlier.

- 267 c. The Employee withdraws from a course after the date specified in the course bulletin for tuition refund. Exceptions may be made upon a showing of appropriate cause by the Employee (e.g., prolonged incapacitating illness, unanticipated conflict between a course in which the Employee is required to teach and the one in which the Employee is enrolled, etc.). Appeals for exception shall be made through the regularly established appeal process in the Student Business Services.
- 268 3. Provided that the Employee has met the eligibility criteria, eligible spouses, and/or dependents may make use of the tuition waiver program providing for a waiver of fifty percent (50%) of the tuition for up to six (6) semester hours of undergraduate credit only at Eastern Michigan University or as otherwise outlined in section D "Tuition Waiver Program".
- 269 4. An eligible Employee's spouse or dependent will be eligible for a tuition waiver if the spouse or dependent:

- 272 (2) The spouse or dependent has satisfied all admission requirements and is eligible to enroll for courses.
- 273 5. A completed application for tuition waiver must be approved by the Benefits Office during the timelines outlined below:
- 274 A completed application for tuition waiver must be submitted to the Benefits Office for approval no later than the payment deadline for 100% drop announced in the Class Schedule Book for the applicable semester.
- 275 6. Failure to submit an application for approval within the required timelines may forfeit the spouse or dependent's ability for that term. Upon approval by the Benefits Office, the application will be mailed to the Employee.
- 276 7. An eligible Employee's spouse or dependent shall be subject to all employer's academic standards, policies and practices and may be refused admission to the University, enrollment in courses, or continued enrollment at Eastern Michigan University the same as any other student of the University.

- 277 8. Tuition waiver benefits eligibility for a spouse or dependent shall cease at the end of the semester in which the eligible Employee terminates employment with the Employer. If the spouse/dependent drops or withdraws from courses during the one hundred percent (100%) drop period, any refund applicable to the tuition waiver shall revert to the Employer. If the student drops classes after the one hundred percent (100%) drop, the Employee shall reimburse the Employer in full for all tuition previously waived by Eastern Michigan University.
- 278 9. An eligible Employee's spouse or dependent shall forfeit tuition waiver benefits and must reimburse the full cost of such benefits to the Employer if:
- 279 a. A grade of "pass," or "C" or above is not achieved in any course for which tuition waiver is obtained. (Grades of "C-"are unacceptable).
- 280 b. A mark of "Incomplete" (I) is received and not converted to a passing grade within one (1) year following termination of the semester in which the course was taken, or the date the Employee's eligibility terminates, whichever is earlier.
- 281 c. The eligible Employee's spouse and/or child withdraws from a course after the date specified in the course bulletin for tuition refund. Exceptions may be made upon a showing of appropriate cause by the eligible Employee (e.g. prolonged incapacitating illness, etc.). Appeals for exception shall be made through the regularly established appeal process in the Student Business Services.

282 D. Flexible Spending Account

283 The Employer has implemented a Flexible Spending Account (FSA) program consisting of Medical Reimbursement Accounts and Dependent Care Accounts. The FSA program will be made available to Employees with an appointment of six (6) or more credit hours. The FSA program shall comply with IRS permissible guidelines as they determine eligible expenses, guidelines, and the latest deadline date for use of funds in the FSA before they are forfeited by the Employee. Employees shall be notified of the annual enrollment deadline not less than ten (10) working days prior to the deadline. The University reserves the right to collect through Payroll any Employee contributions that may be owed within the calendar year.

284 To further facilitate each member's utilization of the above FSA, the Employer will pay the monthly administrative fee for this program and the debit card option.

285 E. Business Travel at University Expense

286 The Employer will reimburse employees for actual and/or reasonable expenses incurred while traveling in conjunction with Eastern Michigan University business. Reimbursement for such expenses will be made in accordance with University Travel Procedures.

ARTICLE XIX PERSONNEL FILES

- A. An Employee, on giving reasonable written notice, shall be permitted to review the Employee's own personnel file, excluding confidential letter(s) of recommendation. Such review may occur during normal business hours in the presence of the responsible custodian of such file. The Employee shall have the right to copies of materials in the Employee's file at the Employee's own expense. The Employee may be accompanied by a representative of the Employee's own choice at the time the file is examined.
- B. If an Employee should become aware of information included in the Employee's personnel file that is factually in error, the Employee may petition, in writing, the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs, or the Employer's authorized designee, to remove said information from the file. The Employee shall bear the burden of proof of establishing that the information is factually in error. If the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs, or the Employer's authorized designee, concludes that the information is in error, such information shall either be excised from the document in which it is located, or the document removed from the Employee's personnel file, whichever the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs, or the Employer's authorized designee, in the Employer's sole discretion, shall determine to be appropriate. The decision of the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs, or the Employer's authorized designee, shall be final and binding on the Employee and the Union, and may not be challenged under the Grievance and Arbitration provisions of this Agreement. Further, discussions and/or decisions made pursuant to this provision shall not be introduced as evidence or otherwise considered in any grievance, arbitration, or other proceeding against the Employer.
- C. If the decision of the Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs, or the Employer's authorized designee is not acceptable to the Employee, the Employee may provide a written explanation, affidavit, and/or document, which shall be identified as rebuttal information, and attached to each document alleged to be in error. Such attachment shall become a permanent part of the document in question.
- D. Disclosure of disciplinary actions to third parties shall be governed by the Bullard-Plawicki Employee Right to Know Act, MCL 423.501-423.512.

- 288 B. In the case of any strike or other suspension of work by the Employees that has not been authorized by the Union, its officers or agents, the Employer agrees that such violation of this Agreement shall not cause the Union, its officers or agents to be liable for damages provided that the Union complies fully with the following:
- 289 1. The Union’s obligation to take action shall commence immediately upon receipt of notice from the Employer that a violation has occurred.
- 290 2. Immediately upon receipt of such notice the responsible Union representative shall immediately talk with those Employees responsible for or participating in such violation, stating to them that:
- 291 a. Their action is in violation of the Agreement, subjecting them to discharge or discipline.
- 292 b. The Union has not authorized the strike, or suspension of work and does not approve or condone it.
- 293 c. The Union instructs the Employees to immediately return to their respective jobs, and submit any grievances they may have through the Grievance Procedure provided for in the Agreement.

ARTICLE XXI SCOPE OF AGREEMENT

- 294 A. Agreement Construction
- 295 The article and titles throughout this Agreement are merely editorial identifications of their related text and do not limit or control that text.
- 296 B. Entire Agreement
- 297 This Agreement represents the entire agreement between the Employer, the Union, and EMU’s Employees, whom the Union represents. This Agreement supersedes and cancels all previous agreements, oral or written, and constitutes the entire agreement between the parties. Any agreement or agreements which supplement this Agreement shall not be binding or effective for any purpose whatsoever unless reduced to writing and signed by the Employer and the Union.

298 C. Saving Clause

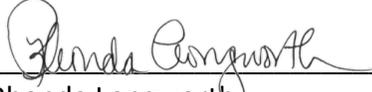

299 If, during the life of this Agreement, any of the provisions contained herein are held to be invalid by operation of law or by any tribunal of competent jurisdiction or if compliance with or enforcement of any provisions should be restrained by such tribunal pending a final determination as to its validity, the remainder of this Agreement shall not be affected thereby. In the event any provision herein contained is so rendered invalid, upon written request of either party, the Employer and the Union shall immediately enter into collective bargaining for the purpose of negotiating a mutually satisfactory replacement for such provision.

ARTICLE XXII DURATION AND AMENDMENT

- 300 This Agreement shall continue in full force and effect beginning September 1, 2020 and continuing until, August 31, 2023. The Agreement shall continue in effect from year-to-year thereafter unless either party notifies the other in writing not less than one-hundred-fifty (150) calendar days prior to the expiration date that a modification or termination of the Agreement is desired. Should either party to this Agreement serve such notice upon the other party, the Employer and the Union shall meet for the purpose of negotiation and shall commence consideration of proposed changes or modifications in the Agreement no later than one-hundred-twenty (120) calendar days prior to the expiration of the agreement.

APPOINTMENTS

Appointments under this Agreement will follow the procedures described below effective Winter Semester 2021.

A. Posting

1. Prior to hiring any new Employee, the hiring department shall, notify by email all current Employees and eligible Employees (the latter as defined in Article XV, Section C, "Layoff"), in the hiring department of the teaching assignments or available work. The hiring department shall give priority in hiring to qualified current Employees who respond to the notification within five (5) working days. Whenever practicable, the hiring department shall use the Employer's web-based posting system to announce and invite applications for existing or potential vacancies.
2. The posting will list the minimum qualifications necessary for a candidate to be considered for the teaching position, or available work, and will include a general description of the responsibilities of the position(s).
3. Whenever practicable, postings will remain open for at least ten (10) consecutive business days before an offer is made to an external candidate. A single posting may result in an offer made to one or more candidates. The ten (10) consecutive business days will be concurrent with A.1. above where applicable.
4. The Employer will provide a link to its posting website on the Academic Human Resources website.

1. An offer to hire an Employee is in the sole discretion of the Employer, which shall take into consideration such things as his/her availability, qualifications and his/her suitability for the stated requirements of the position(s).
2. The Employee's step and specific work to be performed will be described to the selected candidate in a letter of offer which will include an initial salary, the period of time for the work to be performed, and specific responsibilities and duties of the position. The letter of offer will include a reference and web link to the Employee's rights under this collective bargaining agreement. The letter of offer shall be signed by the Department Head or other authorized representative of the Employer. As soon as possible, the candidate will return a copy of this letter of offer with his/her signature as an acceptance of its terms.
3. Employees have no right of re-hire or continuing employment beyond the period of employment described in their letters of offer. Since employment ends at the conclusion of the assignment described in the letter of offer, decisions not to hire an Employee in future semesters are not subject to the grievance procedure.

4. For current Employees, the letter of offer shall be delivered via email as PDF or MS Word document as work becomes available
5. As soon as possible, the candidate will return a copy of this letter of offer with his/her signature as an acceptance of its terms.
6. A system of employment with three (3) ranks is implemented for the Employees under this Agreement: PTL1, PTL2, and PTL3. PTL3 shall also have three divisions: PTL3L, PTL3M, and PTL3H.
7. All initial appointments shall be at the PTL1 step, except for candidates who have previously held Full-Time Lecturer positions with the Employer, whose initial appointment shall be at PTL3H.
8. For the purposes of counting “semester employed”, any course or courses taught during any fall or winter semester will count as one (1) semester taught or employed. Summer semesters are not included in this calculation. Credits taught during the summer are not included for purposes of promotion.
9. Regardless of the number of terms or sub-terms employed during a fall or winter semester, the totality of the semester will equate to one (1) semester employed.
10. Determining Teaching Loads:
 - a. Beginning in Winter 2021, for all Employees, except those in the Library, Credit-Hour Equivalencies (CHE) will be used for the purposes of calculating pay, teaching load, and promotion thresholds.
 - b. For all courses, except those course types indicated below, the credit hours of the course determine the number of CHE. Thus a 3 credit hour course = 3 CHE. Similarly, a 4 credit hour course = 4 CHE.
 - c. For courses with the course types indicated below, the table below determines the equivalency:

Course Type	Measure	Equivalency
Lab (LAB, ELB, DLB, HLB, ELL, LLA, HLL, SL, & SLO)	Contact hours	1 contact hour = 1 CHE
Studio (ST & DST)	Contact hours	1 contact hour = 0.8 CHE
Applied Music (AMS & AMU)	Number of students x Contact hours	1 contact hour = 0.67 CHE
Music Studio	Contact hours	1 contact hour = 0.67 CHE
Music Techniques & Ensembles (MT & ENS)	Contact hours	1 contact hour = 0.75 CHE
Supervision of Student Teaching (EDUC)	Number of students	1 student = 0.55 CHE

- d. Normal rounding rules apply when determining CHE. For example, a 6-contact hour Studio class is equivalent to 5 CHE since $6 * 0.8 = 4.8$ which rounds to 5 CHE. Similarly, a 3-contact hour Studio class is equivalent to 2 CHE since $2 * 0.8 = 1.6$ which rounds to 2 CHE.
- e. For any situation in which the course CHE is less than the course credit hours, the higher of the two will be utilized.
- f. Other equivalencies may be added during the duration of this agreement.

11. Minimum Teaching Loads and Assigning Courses

- a. Due to the fluctuating nature of part-time work, Employees do not have reasonable assurance of rehire. Final determination regarding appointment levels shall be at the sole discretion of the Employer, subject to the guidelines below.
- b. Course assignment qualifications can be based on a variety of considerations that could include expertise, ability, suitability, and/or performance relevant to the assignment in question. Considerations may include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - i. Relevant graduate course work, graduate teaching experience, professional experience, or academic degree in the subject matter area.
 - ii. Suitability for teaching a course can be demonstrated in many ways. This can include and is not limited to effectiveness in teaching a comparable course or course content at EMU or at another institution, demonstrated experience with similar populations of students (e.g. developmental to graduate levels), or modes of instruction (e.g. field, lab-based, or online).

- iii. Teaching a course once does not guarantee priority in future assignments of that course.
- c. Beginning in Winter 2021, if courses are available, the minimum teaching loads of Employees are:
 - i. PTL 1 = no minimum teaching load
 - ii. PTL 2 = 3 CHE/3 CHE minimum teaching load (Fall/Winter). Appointments are made on a yearly basis. In the typical case (a 3 CHE course), this results in a “1/1” minimum teaching load - one course minimum teaching load in the Fall semester and a one course minimum teaching load in the Winter semester.
 - iii. PTL 3L = 3 CHE/3 CHE minimum teaching load (Fall/Winter). Appointments are made on a yearly basis. In the typical case (a 3 CHE course), this results in a “1/1” minimum teaching load - one course minimum teaching load in the Fall semester and a one course minimum teaching load in the Winter semester.
 - iv. PTL 3M = 9 CHE/6 CHE (Fall Winter). Appointments are made on a yearly basis. In the typical case (a 3 CHE course), this results in a “3/2” minimum teaching load - 3 course minimum teaching load in the Fall and a 2 course minimum teaching load in the Winter semester.
 - v. PTL 3H = 12 CHE/9 CHE (Fall Winter). Appointments are made on a yearly basis. In the typical case (a 3 CHE course), this results in a “4/3” minimum teaching load - 4 course minimum teaching load in the Fall and a 3 course minimum teaching load in the Winter semester.
- d. A PTL 2 or PTL 3 may request in writing a teaching load below the minimums above.
- e. Available courses will be assigned in the following order:
 - i. All PTL 3s (L,M, and H) are assigned one course.
 - ii. PTL 3M and PTL 3H are assigned a second course.
 - iii. PTL 3H are assigned a third course.
 - iv. All PTL 3s (L, M, and H) are assigned an additional course, if necessary, to meet CHE minimums.
 - v. All PTL 2s are assigned at the 3 CHE minimum.

- vi. Additional courses are offered to PLT 3s and then PTL 2s.
- vii. PTL 1s are offered courses before new hires.
- f. The Employer will make every reasonable effort to maintain a Part-Time Lecturer minimum appointment level, if work is available and they meet the qualifications for the courses or assignments.
- g. A Part-Time Lecturer at any level who has not been rehired at Eastern Michigan University for six (6) consecutive fall and winter semesters will be eligible to be rehired at Part-Time Lecturer 1.
- h. No Employee may be appointed to more than 14 CHE for two successive semesters.

12. Promotion

- a. Part-Time Lecturers who have met or exceeded expectations in their most recent evaluations will promote immediately upon completion of the minimum number of credits and semesters taught according to the following table:

Current Rank	Number of Semesters Taught in Current Rank	Minimum CHE taught in four of six semesters	New Rank
PTL1	6	0	PTL 2
PTL2	6	0 to 30	PTL 3L
PTL2	6	30 to 42	PTL 3M
PTL2	6	Over 42	PTL 3H
PTL3L	6	30-42	PTL3M
PTL3L	6	Over 42	PTL3H
PTL3M	6	Over 42	PTL3H

- b. Credits taught during the summer are not included for purposes of promotion.

- 13. PTL librarians will be classified according to PTL 1, 2, and 3, but the minimum CHE does not apply. PTL librarians must work in four of six semesters to promote.

C. Layoff

- 1. Definitions:

- a. A layoff is an involuntary separation from employment that occurs after an offer letter has been signed by an Employee but prior to the end of the employment period for which the offer has been made.
- b. A partial layoff is an involuntary reduction in the percent of work described in the offer letter that occurs after an offer letter has been signed by an Employee.

Assuming qualifications for the assignment are met, the order of layoff shall be Part-Time Lecturers 1, then Part-Time Lecturers 2, then Part-Time Lecturers 3 .

2. Except as provided below, the order of layoff for Employees within each step shall be on the basis of expertise, ability, and performance relevant to the assignment in question as determined by the Employer.
3. When there is no substantial difference in the degree of expertise, ability, and performance relevant to the assignment in question between two (2) or more Employees within each step, the order of layoff shall be in the order of lowest number of semesters employed.
4. If the date of the notice of layoff is on or after the first day of classes of the semester for which the layoff applies, the academic unit may either determine the order of layoff in accordance with the provisions above, or by the actual section or course cancellation (i.e., those Employees assigned to cancelled course(s) or section(s) could be selected for layoff).
5. Notice of full or partial layoff will be provided by the Employer as soon as possible after the decision is made, and will include the reason(s) for the reduction as well as language regarding recall privileges as indicated in Sections E and F below.

1. It is the responsibility of the Employee on the layoff status list to provide current contact information and updated application materials to the academic unit. An Employee on layoff status will be directed to check the Employer's web-based posting system for appointment opportunities. Employees on layoff who want to be considered for existing or potential openings in other disciplines should file an application(s) on Eastern Michigan University's Jobs website. An Employee will be notified of a recall offer via U.S. mail and electronic mail by the academic unit.
2. An Employee on layoff retains rights of recall for two years or until s/he has failed to accept offers of recall in two consecutive semesters, whichever is sooner. An Employee must provide written notice of acceptance of an offer within seven (7) working days, pursuant to Article XV.A.1. While on layoff status, an Employee who fails to accept an offer of recall will be given the same rights to notice and opportunities for recall that the Employee had prior to not accepting the offer of recall.

3. If an Employee does not reply to an offer of recall as described above, the academic unit is under no obligation to offer the Employee another recall opportunity.

E. Recall Priority

Assuming qualifications for the assignment are met, the order of recall shall be Lecturers 3, then Lecturers 2, then Lecturers 1.

1. The order of recall for Employees within each step within an academic unit shall be based on expertise, ability, and performance relevant to the assignment in question as determined by the Employer, pursuant to Article XV.B above.
2. When there is no substantial difference in the degree of expertise, ability, and performance relevant to the assignment in question between two (2) or more Employees within each step, recall shall be in order of largest number of semesters employed.
3. Employees placed on layoff status retain the same access to general EMU facilities as Employees not on layoff. For example, such Employees may visit and use museums, galleries, special collections, and libraries with regular faculty borrowing privileges. After meeting specific fee requirements, Employees may also continue to participate in campus parking, use recreational sport facilities, and obtain athletic tickets. Additionally, Employees on layoff will continue to have full use of the email system. Other than the benefits described in this section, Employees on layoff will have no right to any compensation or benefits.

MOU Appendix A: Transition Ranks and Process

- d. For the purposes of counting “semester employed”, any course or courses taught during any fall or winter semester will count as one (1) semester taught or employed. Summer semesters are not included in this calculation. Only semesters taught as a PTL are included in this calculation.
- e. When counting the “number of semesters employed”, the full teaching history, excepting 8(d) above, will be used.
- f. For the purposes of determining a PTL B ranking, both the Employer’s records of an Employee’s current rank or time in rank as a PTL A equal to or greater than four semesters will be used.
- g. For those Employees with work time not conforming to standard credit hours, the table in 9(c) will be used to determine “Number of Credit Hours Taught”.
- h. The list of reclassified employees is attached as an appendix. A separate list will be maintained by the employer adding new PTLs and their rankings as new hires occur.
