Fall 2025

MW 9:00-11:50am

AD2D301 & AD2D331

Portraiture & The Figure

Study of the human figure through the use of predominantly nude models. The dynamic and complex structure of the human figure is explored in a variety of 2D media and exercises designed to nurture a fluent understanding of the active and passive nature of the human body, and offer the potential for expressive use of the figurative motif.

Class Description

Digital Fabrication is a beginner course offering students the opportunity to experiment with new tools and materials to build on their discipline-specific art practice. Students in all areas of concentration (2D, 3D, Photography/New Media, Graphic Design, and Animation & Gaming) are eligible to register for this course. The class will introduce students to a variety of techniques using 3D printers, 3D scanners, laser cutters, CNC milling machines, vacuum forming machines, and more.

Course Objectives

- Introduce alternative ways of thinking about art production
- Experiment with a variety of cutting-edge digital fabrication techniques
- Combine technology with traditional art practices to develop new methods of making

Location

*This class will be offered in the new Digital Fabrication Lab located in the Windgate Arts Complex. Exciting times.

FURNITURE DESIGN FALL 2025

Tuesday/Thursday 11am-1:50pm

AD3D 303 Furniture Design: Joinery 11484

ARTS 108 Furniture Design for Non-Majors (GEKA Approved) 11778

Tuesday/Thursday 5:30pm-8:30pm

AD3D 303 Furniture Design: Joinery 13374

ARTS 108 Furniture Design for Non-Majors (GEKA Approved) 13376

Join us in the new Windage Arts Center for Furniture Design: Joinery! This is an introductory wood-based course that focuses on methods for making furniture. It integrates both technical and creative processes necessary to build objects that have structural integrity and cultural relevance. Students complete a series of skill exercises to begin the class then design and build a semester project. No prior experience needed for the non-majors section (GEKA Approved). Art and Design majors must complete AD 122 3D Design as a pre-requisite.

Graduate sections are available: AD3D 503 13373 (am) and AD3D 503 13375 (pm).
