

Fraternity & Sorority Life Awards Categories and Descriptions 2021

IFC/CPC Award Descriptions

Distinguished Service Award by an Individual

This person has shown dedication and commitment to philanthropy and community service within and/or outside of their chapter, going beyond his or her chapter requirements, and has made a positive difference on the Fraternity & Sorority Life and EMU communities.

New Initiate of the Year

This person has shown a strong sense of values through actions, and has made a positive impact since the beginning of their time in Fraternity & Sorority Life.

Individual Scholastic Award

This person has shown a personal commitment to scholarship, as well as having been a support system and mentor to his or her chapter members.

Silent Leader Award

This person has been a very important part of their chapter, Fraternity & Sorority Life, and the EMU community. They are reliable and can be counted upon for anything.

President of the Year

This individual has shown commitment, dedication, and leadership to his or her chapter, exemplifying the values of his or her chapter and the FSL community, and has gone above and beyond the needs of the chapter. This person must have served a full term – i.e. a full calendar year (2016) or an academic year (2016-2017).

Individual Character Award

This person holds him or herself to a higher standard, visibly lives the values of their chapter every day, represents his or her chapter and the FSL community as a positive light, and goes out of their way to improve the FSL, EMU, and Ypsilanti communities.

Most Improved Chapter

This chapter should be one that has demonstrated significant growth in the past year. They may have demonstrated this in academics, service hours, philanthropy dollars raised, membership, programming, community involvement, or CSAP.

FSL Man/Woman of the Year

This individual is any person, regardless of position, that constantly strives to better the Fraternity & Sorority community and Greek unity. This is a well-known person in the FSL community and represents Fraternity & Sorority Life, as well as their chapter in the best way possible.

Chapter Advisor of the Year

This person is regularly involved in the chapter and is always a positive example for the chapter to follow, living the values of that chapter.

NPHC Award Descriptions

Neo of the Year

This person has shown a strong sense of values through actions, and has made a positive impact since the beginning of their time in Fraternity & Sorority Life.

NPHC Member of the Year

This person, regardless of position, that constantly strives to better the FSL community and Greek unity. This is a well-known person in the FSL community and represents FSL, as well as their chapter in the best way possible.

Most Improved Chapter

This chapter should be on that has demonstrated significant growth in the past year. They may have demonstrated this in academics, service hours, philanthropy dollars raised, membership, programming, community involvement, or CSAP.

Individual Scholastic Achievement Award

This person has shown a personal commitment to scholarship, as well as having been a support system and mentor to his or her chapter members

President of the Year

This individual has shown commitment, dedication, and leadership to their chapter, exemplifying the values of his or her chapter and the FSL community, and has gone above and beyond the needs of the chapter. This person must have served a full term – i.e. a full calendar year (2016) or an academic year (2016-2017).

Endless Effort Award

This award is for an individual that displays a constant commitment to their chapter, the Greek community, and the EMU community and doesn't seek recognition for it.

MGC Award DescriptionsNeo of the Year

This person has shown a strong sense of values through actions, and has made a positive impact since the beginning of their time in Fraternity & Sorority Life.

MGC Member of the Year

This person, regardless of position, that constantly strives to better the FSL community and Greek unity. This is a well-known person in the FSL community and represents FSL, as well as their chapter in the best way possible.

Most Improved Chapter

This chapter should be one that has demonstrated significant growth in the past year. They may have demonstrated this in academics, service hours, philanthropy dollars raised, membership, programming, community involvement, or CSAP.

Above and Beyond AwardWorking Together Award*Silent Leader Award

This person has been a very important part of his or her chapter, Fraternity & Sorority Life, and the EMU community. They are reliable and can be counted upon for anything.

Respect Award

All Council Awards

Faculty/Staff Advisor of the Year

This person is active with the chapter, is present often, and is always willing to help the chapter out whenever needed.

“Helping Hand” Award

This person is someone not affiliated with the chapter, but exceeds day-to-day tasks to support the FSL community.