Vice President of Membership:

- Thank you all for this amazing opportunity. I am so grateful and honored that I got to serve this community, not only for one term but for two terms. Thank you for all the memories. This is Paige, signing off.

Vice President of Education:

Vice President of Internal Affairs:

- Thank you for taking a leap of faith and electing me into this position! It's been an amazing experience and I'm so grateful that I had the chance to serve the community along with these 5 other amazing women. It's been real CPC fall 2018, Morgan out.

Vice President of External Affairs:

- Tuesday December 11th there will be meetings for chair positions:
 - Community Service and Philanthropy @ 5:30-6pm
 - Social @ 6-6:30pm
 - Sisterhood @ 6:30-7pm
- If your chapter has yet to complete and submit their community service hours they need to complete it by tomorrow.
- I want to say thank you to this community trusting me into taking this position this past semester, I am sad that it was cut short due to the term change but have never loved a position more than this one. I will miss working alongside these wonderful ladies and will miss seeing everyone every other Thursday.

Member at Large:

CPC

- This community is one forged in the belief of sisterhood, scholarship, service, and positive campus relations. We each strive to make our mark within the community by taking on positions such as these. However, it is all of you that have left a mark on me. You are all resilient women who have lended me nothing short of constant support and love. I wish you all the best of luck in your endeavours and I hope that you all continue to be the catalyst for change within our community.

-Andrea Sierra
