

EVERYONE'S A WRITER

Writers of Ypsilanti: Carson and Cleveland

Carson and Cleveland, eight-year old twins, are already published authors! They have co-authored two books: Breakfast with Grandma and The Missing Ice Cream.

What do you write?

The twins have published one picture book, written two more, and have plenty of ideas for future books.

Why do you write?

“It’s fun and people want to see what we can do!” They say their audience has shown an interest in their lives, and that they would like to write more stories so readers can learn about them.

What is the most memorable thing you have written?

Breakfast with Grandma and The Missing Ice Cream
