

EMU Office of Campus
and Community Writing

WRITING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM SEMINAR

Spring 2019

May 16 - 17, 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Overview

The Writing Across the Curriculum Seminar is an established professional enrichment experience focused on helping instructors plan and offer courses infused with writing. It is for any interested secondary or post-secondary faculty member or instructor who wishes to incorporate writing into their general education or disciplinary courses. The cost will be $200 for individual registration and $175 per person for group registrations of three or more. Register here: <https://bit.ly/2lwqWXA>.

Description

This year the WAC Seminar will run on Thursday and Friday, May 16-17, 9 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., each of the two days. The Seminar provides participants with the opportunity to develop or refine a course that uses writing. Topics will include developing and addressing writing outcomes; integrating writing outcomes with other student learning outcomes; planning and developing writing assignments; supporting student writing through instruction, feedback, and staged activities; using formal and informal writing; grading, responding to, and assessing student writing; and managing the paper load.

Participants will have access to electronic resources, including instructional materials that assist them with teaching their course(s). They also will have opportunities to interact and discuss student writing with colleagues from multiple campuses.

Register here: <https://bit.ly/2lwqWXA>.

Please contact Ann Blakeslee, ablakesle@emich.edu, for more information.