

EASTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

Summer Science Research Initiative

Regent Beth Fitzsimmons Lectures

Dr. Elizabeth Petty

Senior Associate Dean, Academic Affairs
Professor, Department of Pediatrics
University of Wisconsin
School of Medicine and Public Health

Thursday, June 12, 4:30 pm
Science Complex Rm 156

DNA, Defendants, and Decisions: Sherlock Holmes Meets Genetics

Forensic genetics applies genetics knowledge to legal proceedings. In this talk, some case examples from Michigan will be described. In addition, relevant historical and ethical issues related to future directions in forensics will be discussed based on the speaker's experience as a board certified molecular geneticist and expert witness for DNA cases in court.

Reception immediately afterward in the basement atrium

SSRI is sponsored by the College of Arts and Sciences