

Public Health: Community Health Education Track

Important Things to Know 2018 / 2019

1 Planning to Do Your CHED Internship in Winter 2019?

To be eligible for the CHED Track Internship and Internship Seminar winter 2019 you will need to have successfully completed (with a grade of "C" or better) the following courses:

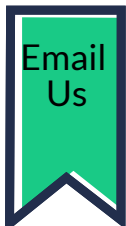

HLED 130, HLED 242, HLED 250, HLED 260, HLED 270, HLED 345, HLED 355, HLED 371, HLED 380, HLED 490 & HLED 495.

2 Do You Have a Health Education Faculty Advisor?

If you are a Public Health Major Intent with plans to take the Community Health Education Track you can request a Health Education Faculty Advisor right away! You don't have to wait until you are accepted into the Public Health Major.

If you have been accepted into the Public Health Major in the Community Health Education Track and you have not been assigned a Health Education faculty advisor, please request one (see Step 5)!

3 For Advising Help ...

If you have a Health Education Faculty Advisor make an appointment to see him/her to make sure you are taking the right courses.

If you don't have a Health Education Faculty Advisor please email Dr. Conley this week and ask to be assigned to an advisor.

Hoping to Do Your CHED Internship in Winter 2020?

You must take HLED 260: Introduction to Community Health in winter 2019 if you haven't taken it already! HLED 260 is only offered in winter, and it is a prerequisite for two courses you will need to take in fall 2019 (HLED 345 Community Health Education Methods and Materials and HLED 380 Psychosocial Health and Service Learning).

If you haven't taken HLED 242 Theoretical Foundations of Health Behavior, be sure to take it in winter 2019 too. (It is also a prerequisite for HLED 345--a course you will need to take next fall.)

4 Which Classes are Only Offered One Semester a Year?

It's easy to plan your course schedule if you keep in mind which semester courses are offered. HLED 130, HLED 242, HLED 250, HLED 270, HLED 490 & HLED 495 are offered in fall and winter semesters.
