

From Vision to Victory: Navigating Entrepreneurial Competencies and Challenges

Hebah AlQato

EID: E02707780

Master of Business Administration

Eastern Michigan University

This essay will delve into the essential competencies and abilities necessary for founders and entrepreneurs to initiate and maintain a thriving venture. It will examine the substantial challenges encountered by entrepreneurs during the inception and expansion phases of their venture. Through the execution of primary research, involving interviews with seasoned entrepreneurs, and the utilization of secondary research from pertinent journals, magazines, and reports, this essay aims to deliver an all-encompassing analysis of the entrepreneurial terrain. It sheds light on the knowledge, skills, and strategies crucial for aspiring entrepreneurs, offering valuable insights to the realm of entrepreneurship.

This essay is of paramount significance as it addresses fundamental questions crucial for anyone aspiring to start or manage a successful business. In today's dynamic business environment, understanding the competencies required for entrepreneurship and being aware of the challenges that lie ahead are vital for success. By offering insights derived from primary interviews and substantiated by secondary research, this essay equips entrepreneurs with practical knowledge to navigate the complexities of entrepreneurship. It provides a valuable resource for students, aspiring entrepreneurs, and anyone interested in the world of startups, fostering a deeper understanding of what it takes to thrive in the entrepreneurial landscape.

Primary research will be conducted through in-depth interviews with experienced entrepreneurs, scheduled to be completed within four weeks. Secondary research will involve the analysis of reputable journals, magazines, and reports related to entrepreneurship. The overall timeline for data collection and essay completion is estimated at ten weeks, ensuring a thorough and well-researched essay.