

Professor Samir Tout, of the School of Information Security and Applied Computing was at Governor Snyder's International Cyber Summit. This was EMU's College of Technology's second year sponsoring this event.

Pictured below is Professor Samir Tout showing some of the active research that he is pursuing with his students in Embedded Systems/ IoT & Cyber Security, which is an area he is leading at EMU.

