1. Please arrive on time for your exam. If you arrive late, your testing time will be reduced. Your scheduled exam end time will not be extended. In line with university policies concerning testing in class, if you are more than half an hour late to test at CATE, you will not be allowed to take the exam without instructor permission.
2. If you miss an exam that is scheduled at CATE, all future actions must be discussed between you and the professor. You may need to make arrangements to test with your professor and take the exam in the department with or without accommodations.
3. You must start your test on time. The testing time (including accommodated time) cannot be used for last minute studying.
4. You may not start your exam early unless we have written (emailed) permission from your professor.
5. All activities, including testing, will be filmed. If suspicious activity arises video will be released to the instructor, office of Student Conduct and/or EMU Department of Public Safety. Students observed cheating will have their exams confiscated and stopped from testing.
6. Cell phones, electronic devices, purses, or book bags are not allowed to be near you while testing.
7. Lab staff may not answer questions concerning words or sentences used on exams.
8. Do not leave the testing area without permission.
9. Students need to specify the desired format of the exam such as large print or human reader when making appointments with the CATE Lab.
10. Private rooms, may not be available depending on how many requests have been fulfilled and lateness of request.

11. Students need to schedule their testing time so that it corresponds to the day and time of the regular class exam. If that is not possible due to a lab or conflicts with another class, please inform both the instructor and the CATE Lab staff when you schedule.

12. Students need to schedule at least 5 business days in advance (M-F are business days) to take exams at CATE. Final exams must be scheduled before the cut-off date noted on the testing form. We will try to accommodate late requests, but we cannot guarantee that a reservation will always be possible at the CATE Lab.

13. No hats or scarves are to be worn while testing. (Religious attire excluded). Jackets are to be hung on coat racks. Do not remove clothing including shoes once the exam has begun.

14. Failure to comply with these rules may result in a meeting with the DRC.

Please, if your testing accommodations need modification or are not working, contact your DRC advisor.
