PANELIST PERSPECTIVE

WHAT WAS IT LIKE AS A PANELIST?
HOW DID YOUR PARTICIPATION ENHANCE STUDENT LEARNING?

“It was nice to hear from a chaplain that we probably would not get a lot of interaction with during clinical year....”

STUDENT PERSPECTIVE

HOW DID A PANELIST
ENHANCE YOUR

...Hearing experiences from patients about how to be a better provider from a patient and addict was valuable and shows how important it is to not judge our patients and really listen to them.”

“It gave me different perspectives on both religion in the medical field and also how successful people can still struggle so greatly with addiction.”

“Talks about giving bad news, being prepared to deal with people during difficult times in their lives, and remembering to have empathy to all people.”
