

Faculty Research Fellowship (FRF)

FY2007 Guidelines

Purpose and Nature of the Award

The FRF is intended to encourage and support the research, creative, artistic, and scholarly endeavors of tenured or tenure-track EMU faculty by providing SSM, spring-summer salary, and/or released-time awards (in increments of 25%, 50%, 75%, or 100% per semester) for outstanding proposals. Cash (SSM) awards range from $300 to $3,000. Spring-Summer Research Awards are funded at a maximum of 20% of base salary (no spring/summer teaching allowed) or 10% (awardee may teach one course).¹

Timeline

Proposals may be submitted at any time to the Associate Vice President for Graduate Studies and Research (Starkweather Hall) and will be date-stamped on receipt. Applicants for released time and Spring-Summer support must adhere to internal deadlines and screening/rating/ranking procedures established by departments, schools, and colleges, as faculty replacement requires advance planning. All proposals require signature approval by the department head or school director; released-time proposals require signature approval by both the department head and college dean. Proposals must be submitted both in one hard copy with approval signatures and electronically as an email attachment in Word. Cash-only proposals received in any month will constitute a competitive pool; awards are normally announced within two weeks of the end of the month. Deadlines for submission to Graduate Studies and Research of released time only, released-time-plus-cash, and Spring-Summer awards are Nov. 15 and Mar. 15.

Proposal Elements

Proposals must be double-spaced on numbered pages (one side only) in 12-pt. font with one-inch margins. They must contain the following elements:

- Title page (include project title; name, rank, and home department of applicant(s); one-paragraph abstract; precise request; and approval signatures (department head, multiple applicants, and dean, if appropriate)
- Project narrative (5-10 pages²): goals and objectives; significance; outcomes assessment; work plan and timeline; justified line-item budget (if appropriate)
- Attach a short (2-5 pp.) CV emphasizing the applicant's most recent five years of activity
- Appendices as appropriate (may include departmental evaluation letters, letters of permission/access, tables of contents, survey instruments, etc.)
