EMU Commission on Women Scholarship Application

This scholarship is open to admitted undergraduate and graduate students who plan to be or are enrolled at least half-time. This is a one-time scholarship for the academic year (the award is split evenly between fall 2024 and winter 2025 semesters).

To be eligible for a Commission on Women's Scholarship you must meet the following criteria:

1. Have had an interruption in your education of at least five (5) cumulative years (due to taking care of a family, financial or other reasons) or you must be planning a career that is generally non-traditional for your gender.
2. Have a minimum EMU or transfer cumulative grade point average of 2.50 for undergraduate students (3.00 for graduate students).
3. Have financial need as determined by the Office of Financial Aid.
4. Be enrolled at least half-time (6 credit hours for undergraduate students and 4 credit hours for graduate students).
5. Have a Free Application for Federal Financial Aid (FAFSA) processed by the federal processor by November 30, 2024. Please note, processing time for the FAFSA is approximately two (2) weeks. Please complete the financial aid application online at studentaid.gov.

The application and supporting documentation can be submitted to Service EMU (268 Student Center), by close of business day on Friday, December 13, 2024. You can also submit application and supporting documentation online through the Office of Financial Aid Document Submission Form or email to fa_scholarships@emich.edu. It must include:

- The completed application
- Personal statement explaining how you have overcome gender obstacles or how you ensure that there is fair and equitable treatment of women at the University or in your community.
- One letter of recommendation, preferably from a current or former teacher and/or work supervisor (not relatives). Form is included, but you are not required to use it.
