

7/28/2020

EASTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY'S GRADUATE PROGRAM IN HISTORIC PRESERVATION ANNOUNCES THE
*COMMONWEALTH SCHOLARSHIP TO INCREASE DIVERSITY IN HISTORIC PRESERVATION

Eastern Michigan University's Graduate Program in Historic Preservation is pleased to announce the inaugural Commonwealth Scholarship for academic year 2020-2021, initiated by the Commonwealth Heritage Group, a heritage management and consulting firm.

Maximum award: $5000.

This scholarship is open to current and incoming students to this graduate program. Applicants must increase the diversity of the program and demonstrate financial need (FAFSA must reflect this). Additionally, applicants must submit:

- A cover letter and resume expressing interest and demonstrating need.
- A statement regarding interest in and/or experience with the preservation or interpretation of communities, landscapes, buildings, objects, and stories of diverse cultures.
- A statement regarding career plans that will include this important work.
- Two references (name, title, phone number, and email) on a separate page.

Please send application submission as ONE SINGLE PDF to nbryk@emich.edu with subject: Commonwealth Scholarship Application. By applying you agree to having professors as well as outside reviewers have access to all application materials.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION: Monday, August 17 at 5 pm EDT.

NOTE: If you are not in the program and would like to be, and feel you qualify for this scholarship, please consider applying immediately for entrance in Fall 2020. Please contact nbryk@emich.edu for guidance or see this link:

<https://www.emich.edu/admissions/apply/index.php>

For questions please contact Nancy Bryk, Program Director, at nbryk@emich.edu