Title 80-120-pt font

First Author<sup>1</sup>; Second Author<sup>1</sup>; Third Author, PhD<sup>1</sup>; Fourth Author, PhD<sup>1</sup> <sup>1</sup>Eastern Michigan University, Ypsilanti, MI

Purpose or Introduction States purpose of the study or objectives of research May use an Abstract-type style if using Introduction heading (e.g., objective, ... If using Purpose heading, can state "The purpose of this _____ study Bullet points may be used

Results or Findings

36-pt font

States results or findings of research

Findings/Results should be understandable in the absence of presenter

Use subheadings, images, tables, quotations, bullets, etc. as appropriate to communicate the findings/results of the study

Discussion

36-pt font

Offers interpretation of research or new knowledge

Note that Results/Findings section is intended to state results, while the Discussion section is intended to interpret the findings/results of the study

Subheadings, bullets, additional literature, etc. may be used as applicable to communicating the interpretation of the study

Background

36-pt font States background and provides rationale for study Use pertinent literature to situate the research

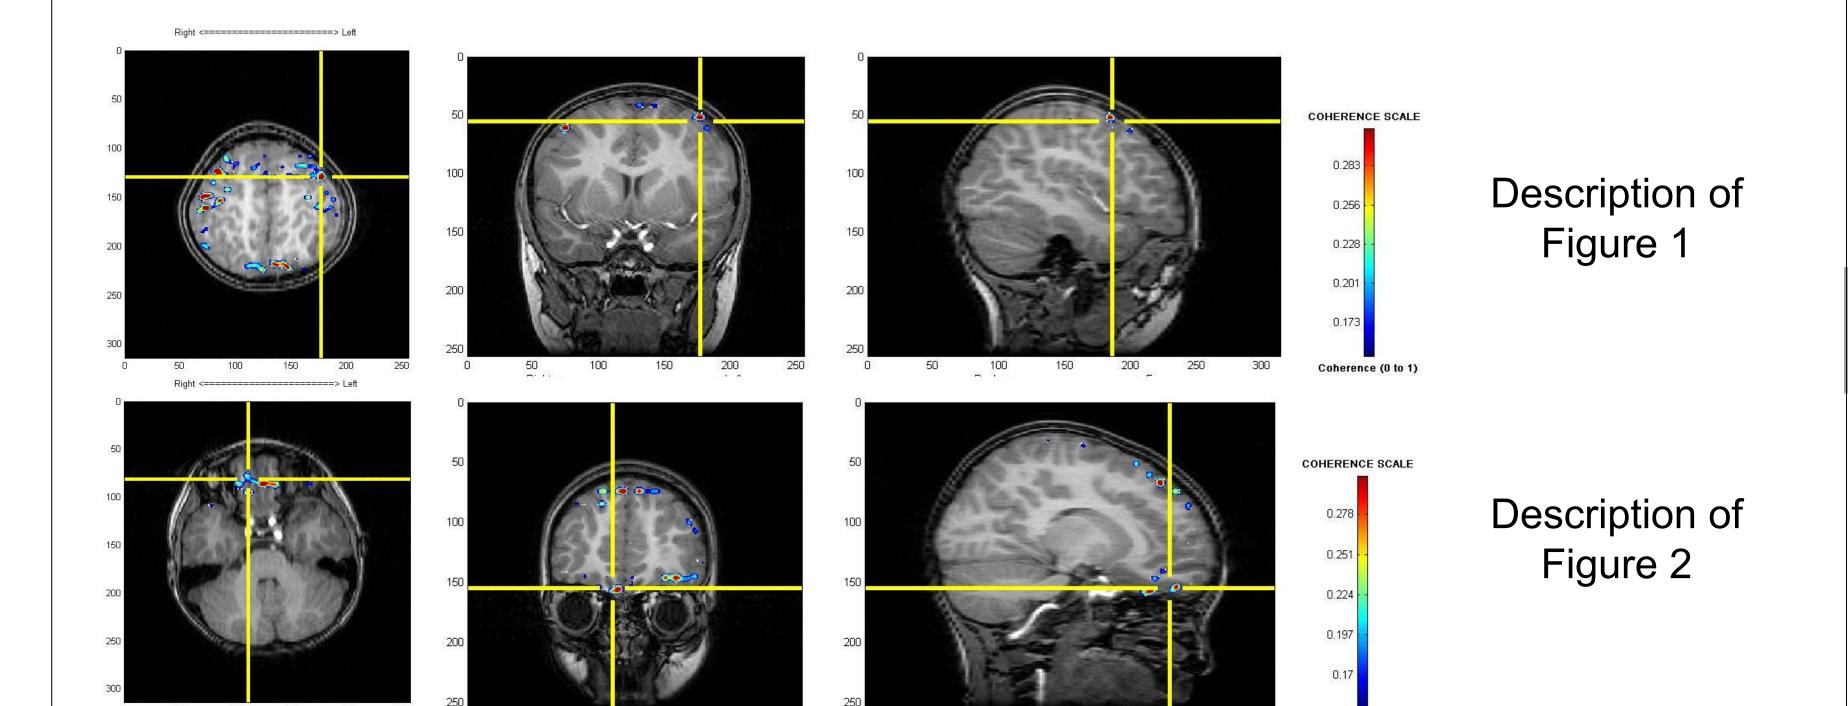

Keep Purpose statement concise (1-2 sentences)

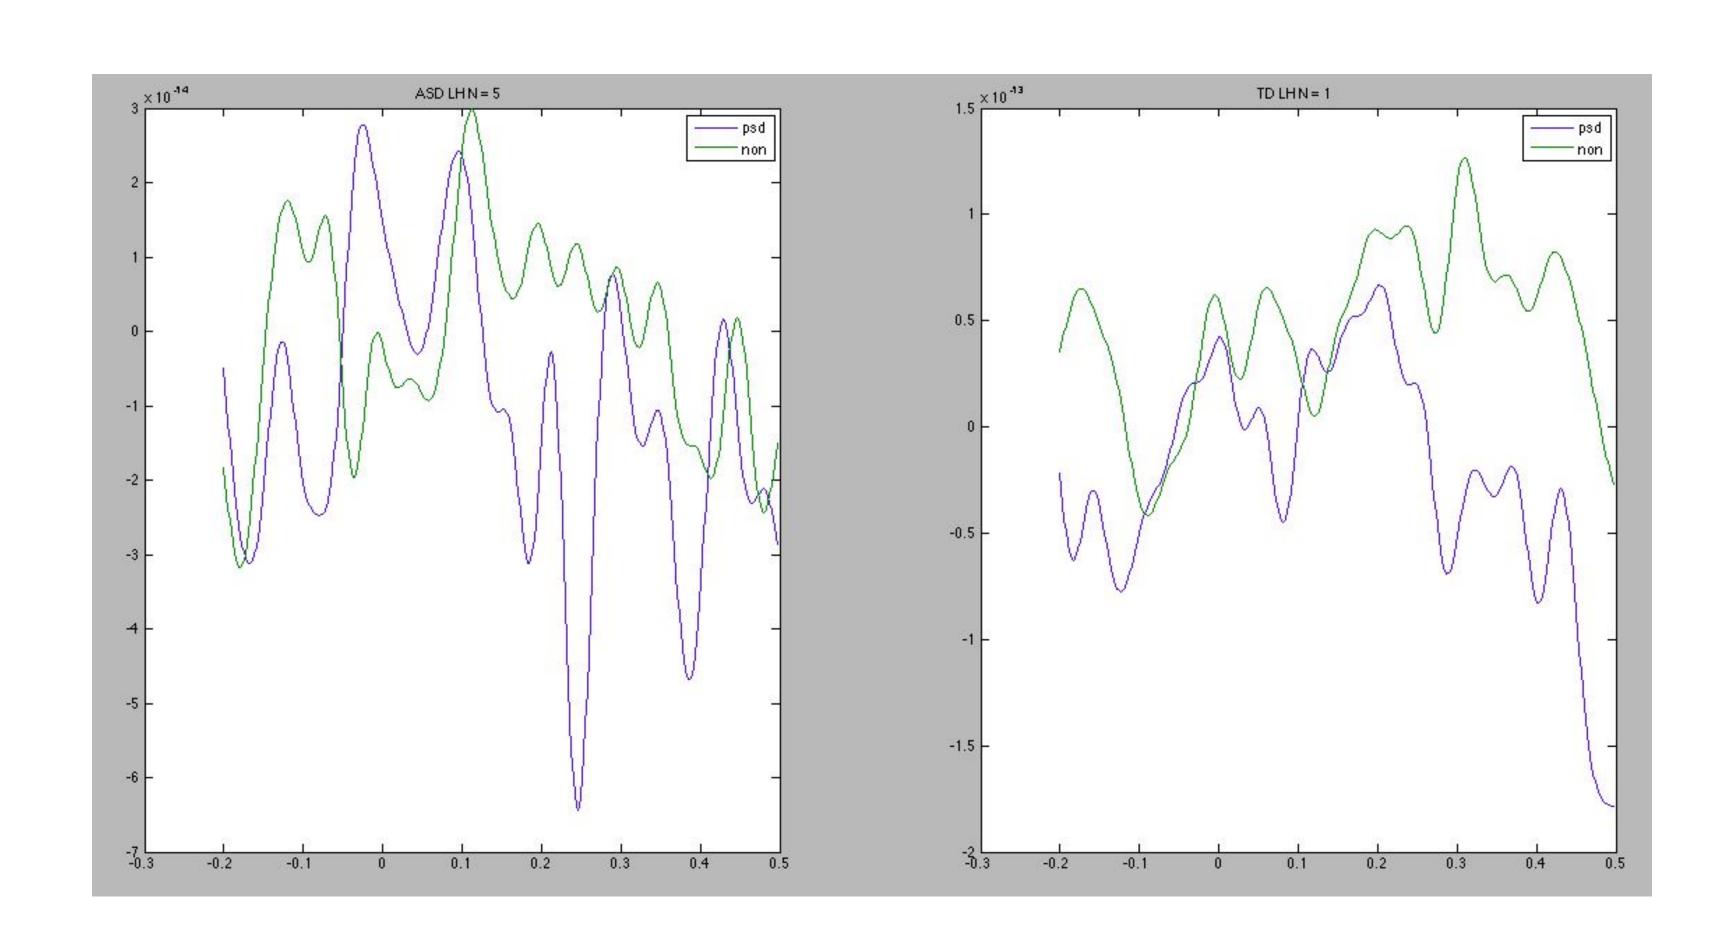

Abstract-style should be 150 words or less

36-pt font

was to

36-pt font

Description of Figure 3

Conclusion

36-pt font

Offers brief summary/conclusion of research; typically a few sentences No new knowledge should be presented in the conclusion section

Optional section

Future Directions

36-pt font

Offers brief suggestions for future research when applicable – typically 2-3 sentences

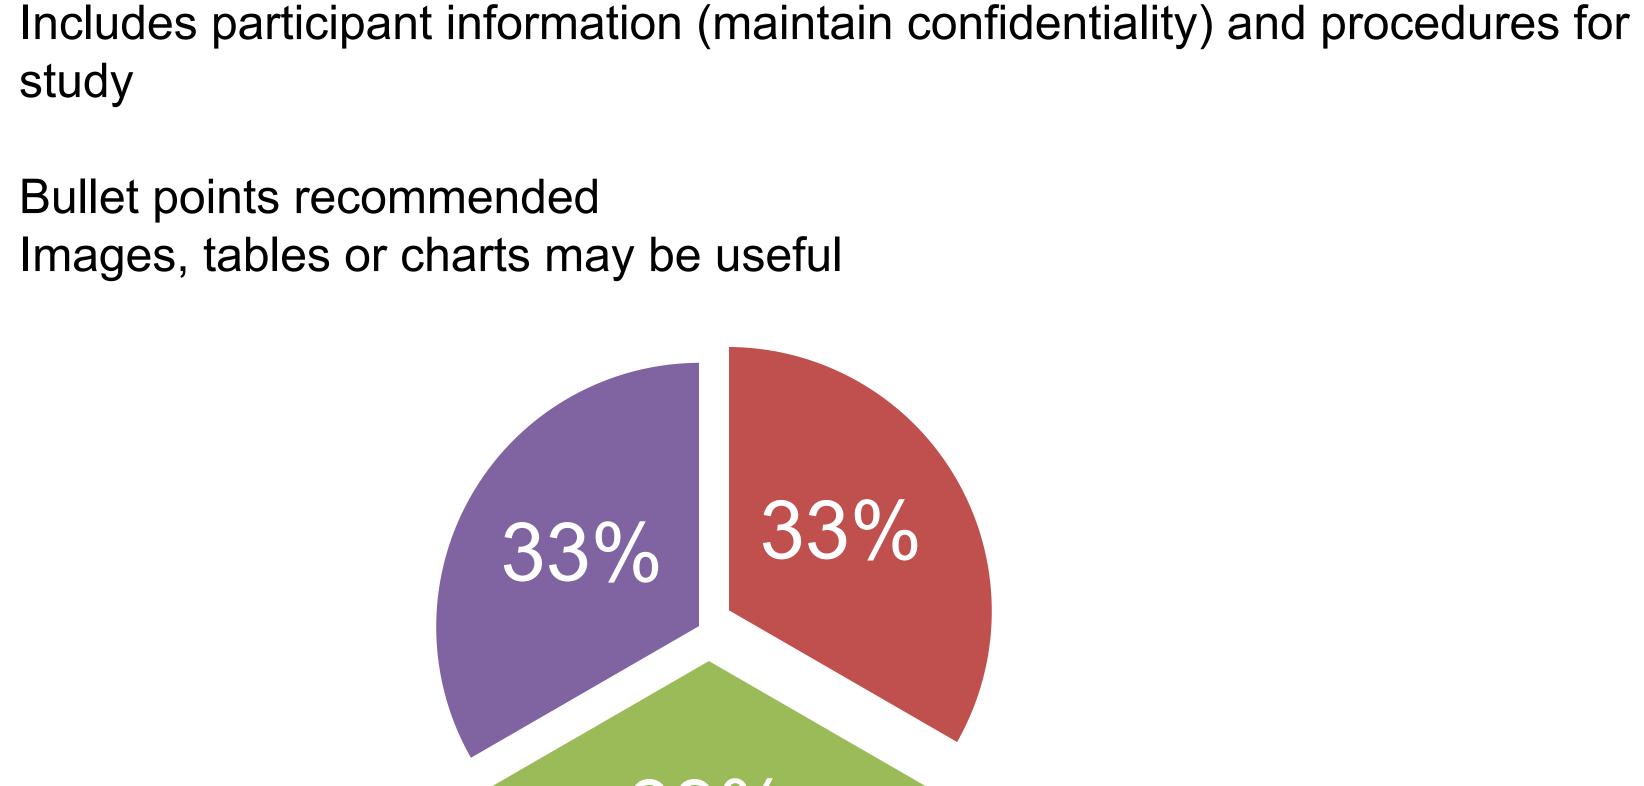

Optional section

Acknowledgements

20-pt font or slightly smaller acceptable Expresses gratitude toward parties that provided support (e.g., funders, advisors, participants, etc.) Be sure to maintain confidentiality if thanking participants

References

20-pt font or slightly smaller acceptable Can be numbered; if numbered, references should follow order of appearance in poster Use appropriate reference style for discipline (e.g., APA, MLA, etc.)

Methods

Provides statement on type of research and overviews design components