

Abbott Scholarship
Department of History & Philosophy

The Department of History and Philosophy at Eastern Michigan University is seeking applications from qualified graduate students for the Abbott Scholarship. Funding from the Abbott Scholarship is used to pay for graduate tuition and fees, and currently stands at around $950.00.

To be eligible, the applicant must meet the following criterion:

- Be a full time graduate student in History (8-9 credit hrs per semester)

Along with this application form, the applicant must also submit

- two letters of recommendation from faculty who know the applicant's work
- a personal statement outlining why you are pursuing the Master's degree, and your future plans once you have completed your degree at Eastern. This statement should be no more than two pages, double-spaced.
- a current copy of the applicant's transcript

APPLICATION DEADLINE 5:00 P.M.TUESDAY, MARCH 15 (or following Monday if March 15 falls on a weekend).

Place completed application & supporting material in Professor Delph's mailbox in the Department of History & Philosophy.

In deciding to make this award, the Graduate committee will take into consideration the student's g.p.a. in history, overall g.p.a., the personal statement, and letters of recommendation. A student may only receive this award one time during his or her graduate studies in the Department of History and Philosophy at Eastern.
