

DEWEY, FREIRE, AND EDUCATION FOR LIBERATION

FIRST-YEAR PHILOSOPHY M.A. CONFERENCE

MONDAY, DECEMBER 10, 2018

3:30-7:00 P.M.

219 PRAY-HARROLD HALL

3:30-4:30: Growth and Mind in Dewey's Philosophy

Moderator: Eva Chrysochoou

Speaker: Timothy Wright, "The Central Theme of Growth in Dewey's Philosophy"

Comments: Iman AbuAitah

Speaker: Derek Hadfield, "Two Competing Theories of Mind: Substance Dualism and Pragmatism"

Comments: Robert Scheuer

4:45-5:45: Dewey, Freire, and the American Education System

Moderator: Brian Bellinger

Speaker: Ben Magee, "Dewey and Freire on Growth in the American Education System Under 'No Child Left Behind'"

Comments: Tim Wright

Speaker: Marshall Corcoran, "A Flawed System: Modes of Minority Student Oppression in American Schools"

Comments: Derek Hadfield

6:00-7:00: Freire, Oppression, and Revolution

Moderator: Áine Keefer

Speaker: Iman AbuAitah, "A Cycle of Oppression: The Influence of Nazism and Zionism on the Palestine-Israeli Conflict—Insights from Paulo Freire's Pedagogy of the Oppressed"

Comments: Ben Magee

Speaker: Robert Scheuer, "The Role of a Revolutionary Leader: An Argument for Dialogical Agitation"

Comments: Marshall Corcoran

EASTERN
MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

PHILOSOPHY