

Breakout Sessions

Student Center, 2nd Floor

Choose Two of the Four Sessions

Peer Advising

Auditorium

Molly Weir; Academic Advisor
Chayna Brunner; Peer Advisor
Andre Cocagne; Peer Advisor

Navigating your first semester of college can be tricky, but here at The Honors College we love to help! Honors Peer Advisors will take you step by step through our Honors resources, website, and advising appointments, to ensure that YOU know everything you need to start off on the right foot and Soar Higher.

Create Your Own Adventure Challenge

Room #

Samantha Bartolet; Undergraduate Student Fellow
Caitlin Keif; Undergraduate Student Fellow

Are you ready for an adventure? Come learn about one of the newest traditions at The Honors College! The Choose Your Own Adventure Challenge is an interactive activity designed to help you become more involved with EMU and the surrounding Ypsilanti community. Create a unique college experience, make memories, and earn an exciting prize – get a head start on your adventure today!

Building Community Through Service

Room #

Celisa Gutierrez; Honors College Alumna

Concerned about fulfilling your Honors Community Service Requirement? Don't be! The Honors College Programming Team hosts many service events throughout the academic school year. We provide service to local organizations including: The Growing Hope Farm, The Gilbert Residence, The Ronald McDonald House of Ann Arbor, and American House. Become integrated with the EMU and Ypsilanti community by giving back!

Diversity and Inclusion in Leadership

Ballroom

Dar Mayweather; Center for Multicultural Affairs, Program Coordinator

This breakout session will explore the power of one's story and begin to explore how this can impact one's experiences, working with others, and society as a whole. Concepts of diversity, inclusion, and social identity will be introduced as well as future resources and opportunities on campus to continue this conversation.

Stay Connected with
The Honors College Community!

@EMUHonors

For Breakout Session times, please refer to the Itinerary.

Breakout Sessions

Student Center, 3rd Floor

Choose Two of the Four Sessions

Exercise Your Way to Better Grades

Room 330

Rosie Lowery; Wellness Promotion Specialist, REC/IM
Bailey Streib; Graduate Assistant REC/IM, Marketing,
Special Events

Do you feel like your life is way too busy to get your daily exercise in? Most students do. But, exercise experts have the science behind why working out is necessary. Come see how The Honors College is pairing with the REC/IM to help Honors students improve their brain function by hitting the gym!

Involved, Connected, Living The HC Experience

Room 352

Lauren Renou; Undergraduate Student Fellow
Sara Dudzik; Undergraduate Student Fellow

Your time in Honors will be so much more than just an academic experience. Come learn about all of the exciting events coming up this year with The Honors College like: Welcome Back Picnic, Honors Induction, Blanket Making, Lock-In, Yoga, and more! Get involved, stay connected, live The HC experience.

Study Abroad Opportunities at EMU

Room 310

Ronald Delph, PhD; Department of History & Philosophy
Adrienne Cruz; Undergraduate Student Fellow

Eastern Michigan University is a leader in offering students the opportunity to study abroad. This year alone EMU is offering 37 study abroad programs to students. This session will explore the numerous study abroad options available and address common concerns including funding and scholarships, and what to expect from your study abroad experience.

Undergraduate Research

Room 320

W. John Koolage, PhD; Department of History & Philosophy
Danielle Clevenger; Graduate Assistant, Department of History and Philosophy

Hear about the benefits of doing Undergraduate Research and how to get involved with your major or program. This session will also include a preview of a new learning project students can get involved with.

Stay Connected with
The Honors College Community!

@EMUHonors

For Breakout Session times, please refer to the Itinerary.