

Common Read and Ice Cream Social

Tuesday, September 6, 2016

Common Read

201 Pray-Harrold, 2:00 - 4:00 PM

"With Justice for All?"

---

This session, designed for new Honors College students, will explore questions regarding the assigned Honors College Common read for 2016, Brown Girl Dreaming by Jacqueline Woodson. This session, to be held in 201 Pray-Harrold, will include guided discussion with Dr. Ramona Caponegro from the Department of English Language and Literature. It will conclude with an ice cream social in The Honors College.

You will be fulfilling part of one of the Honors graduation requirements by attending this session as a first-year student.

If you would like to purchase or rent the book at The Honors College Orientation, it will be on sale at the EMU bookstore for your convenience. We also encourage you to check your local library.

Any ISBN number is acceptable.

Annual Ice Cream Social

The Honors College, 3:30 - 5:30 PM

Build your own sundae

---

Join us after the Common Read for our Annual Ice Cream Social at The Honors College.

Attendees will have the opportunity to build their own ice cream sundae, meet current Honors students, and explore The Honors College building.

511 W. Forest, Ypsilanti, MI 48197

Stay Connected with
The Honors College Community!

@EMUHonors

