
BEATRICE COZETTA JORDAN HONORS SCHOLARSHIP

Application

Deadline: June 1st

The Beatrice Cozetta Jordan Honors Scholarship honors EMU alumnus Tyrone Jordan's ('84) mother. Ms. Beatrice Jordan spent her life helping others – in her church, community, and athletics. Throughout her life, however, Ms. Jordan confronted multiple challenges. She lost her first husband to heart disease, leaving her a young widow with four children. She was diagnosed with breast cancer at age 35, and she faced domestic violence. Despite all that, she remained the light of her community and a servant to others. With this scholarship, Mr. Jordan and his wife Sherri Jordan ('83) honor Beatrice Cozetta Jordan by helping those who have faced similar challenges achieve their purpose in life. One award of $400 is given annually, distributed across the fall and winter semesters.
