The above is an employee of the Eastern Michigan University. The employee has requested a reasonable accommodation for a medical condition under the American's with Disabilities Act (ADA) and has identified you as the treating physician. The employee believes a reasonable accommodation relating to their condition is necessary to enable them to perform the essential functions of their job. To assist Eastern Michigan University in evaluating this request for accommodation, please answer the following questions. Please provide specific and detailed answers to these questions, using additional sheets where necessary. To assist you in completing this medical questionnaire enclosed is a copy of the employee's position description. Some questions contain narratives and definitions, kindly review the narrative and/or definitions before answering the question. Eastern Michigan University will use the information to evaluate the employee's request for accommodation in accordance with the ADA. The information you provide will be confidential.

A. Questions to help determine whether an employee has a disability.

Have you examined the employee for impairment relating to their request for a reasonable accommodation

Yes

No

If Yes, please provide date(s) of examination:

Does the employee have a physical or mental impairment?

Yes

B. Questions to help determine whether an accommodation is needed.

An employee with a disability is entitled to an accommodation only when the accommodation is needed because of the disability. The following questions may help determine whether the requested accommodation is needed because of the disability:

What limitation(s) is interfering with job performance or accessing a benefit of employment?

What job function(s) or benefits of employment is the employee having trouble performing or accessing because of the limitation(s)?

How does the employee's limitation(s) interfere with his/her ability to perform the job function(s) or access a benefit of employment?

C. Questions to help determine effective accommodation options.

If an employee has a disability and needs an accommodation because of the disability, the employer must provide a reasonable accommodation, unless the accommodation poses an undue hardship. The following questions may help determine effective accommodations:

Do you have any suggestions regarding possible accommodations?

Yes No

If Yes, what are they?

How would your suggestions improve the employee's job performance?

D. Other comments.
