

Title: Never Forget

Here is my submission for the International week 2015 Photo Exhibit from my time studying abroad in May, 2015.

This photo is from my trip to Normandy France. The focus of this trip was to learn about the Allied Invasion of France on June 6th, 1944 (D-Day). One of the most touching and emotional parts of this trip was the new-found understanding of the immense loss of life suffered during World War Two. This image shows the grave of an unknown soldier in the Normandy American Cemetery. While we will never know who this man was, we will never forget his sacrifice.
