

I might be kind of a unique case, but I have gone on four study abroad programs with Eastern, so I wanted to submit one photo from each trip. I hope that would be ok, since they show a variety of places and were taken over several years.

Trip 1. Power, Place and Image in Florence and Rome - 2012

Title: Palazzo vecchio

By: Tyler Moll

I felt that this photo shows the mystery of studying abroad. You are walking through a new city and turn a corner, then BAM! You get this amazing view out of nowhere. The Palazzo vecchio - Florence, Italy.

Trip 2. Art and History in Prague and Munich - 2013

Title: Castles in the Sky

By: Tyler Moll

This photo is all about ambition. The Bavarian king that built this enormous castle on a mountain listened to nobody and built one of the largest castles ever constructed. To tour the castle also required ambition, as it required a 3 hour train ride and 30 minute hike up a steep mountain. Neuschwanstein Castle - Bavaria, Germany.

Trip 3. Art and History in Madrid and Barcelona - 2014

Title: The Fort

By: Tyler Moll

History is everywhere. This 17th century fort is in the middle of Barcelona, yet it looks like it would belong on a Spanish colonial island in the Caribbean. You never know what you will find. Montjuic Castle - Barcelona, Spain.

Trip 4. Art and History in Dublin and London - 2015

Title: Ghosts

By: Tyler Moll

Experience is everything. Who knew that you could explore the ruins of a 900 year old abbey in the Irish countryside, while also learning that it is a filming site for the popular TV show Game of Thrones. Amazing. Inch Abbey - Ireland
